

Dearest Śrīla Prabhupāda,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All glories to your fearless preaching.

All glories to your unwavering compassion.

All glories to you, the topmost servant of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa!

On this sacred occasion of your 129th Vyāsa-pūjā, I pause to reflect on the unfathomable mercy you have bestowed upon the entire world—and especially on a fallen soul like me.

You came not to take, but to give—

To give the highest truth, the topmost knowledge, the purest path of devotion. You walked among us, yet you were never of this world. From the dusty lanes of Calcutta to the Bowery streets of New York, from the London streets to villages in Africa and cities across Asia, you awakened hearts everywhere with the timeless message of the Bhagavad-gītā and Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam.

You built an entire spiritual movement—ISKCON—just by following the simple order of your Guru Mahārāja: "If you ever get money, print books."

And you did more than print—you poured your life into each page. You once said:

"My books are my personal ecstasies."

Your translations are not ordinary. They are living, breathing śabda-brahma, spiritual sound, the direct voice of Lord Kṛṣṇa, made accessible to us through your realized purports.

Through book distribution, you have given your followers a sacred service that directly connects us to your heart. You boldly declared:

"Distribute books, distribute books, distribute books. This is our number one activity."

Indeed, book distribution is the life-force of your movement. It is how your mercy reaches the blind, the lost, the curious, and even the hostile. Every book handed out is a soul touched, a seed planted, a life potentially transformed

Dear Śrīla Prabhupāda,

you are jagad-guru, the spiritual master of the entire world. But for me, you are also my eternal savior, my śikṣā-guru, and my ever-watchful guide. Even now, I feel your presence in your instructions, your morning walks, your letters, your lectures, your prayers, and especially your books.

On this Vyāsa-pūjā day, I beg you for three things:

1. The intelligence to never disobey your instructions.
2. The strength to share your books far and wide—without pride, fear, or hesitation.
3. The determination to never leave your lotus feet—come what may.

Please allow me to become a worthy servant in your divine mission. Let my life be dedicated to assisting your movement in some small way—through chanting, studying, distributing, and practicing what you gave.

You wrote: "I have given you everything. Now you take it and give it to others."

Yes, Śrīla Prabhupāda. That is my vow today.

This life is meant for seva, and your books are the boat that will carry countless souls back to Kṛṣṇa.

Your servant of servant

thank you

Hare Krishna to all.

Srila prabhupada gave so much, that to the pasandis like me. I am so fallen I have doubted even prabhupada, said so many bad words, and thought so much bad about prabhupada. Still prabhupada is soo merciful, he is still nourishing me, he is still taking care of me. Without prabhupada I wouldn't be able to utter even a single Maha mantra.

Hey prabhupada please accept me as your humble servant, even if I serve you humbly for all eternity I can't able to pay for what you have done for me.

Thank you prabhupada for coming to lower world for the fallen persons like me. Let me always be your servant and give me the pure kc intelligence so that in any situation I would never have even a tinge of doubt at the lotus feet of srila gurudeva, param gurudeva, at your lotus feet, at the lotus feet of gauranag mahaprabhu, at the lotus feet of shri tulasi maharani, and most beautiful shri shri radha krishna . Please prabhupada please forgive me and Please give me your shelter.

Rushikesh narlawar

My dear Srila Prabhupada, please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Your Divine Grace.

On this auspicious day of your Vyaspūja, I want to thank you for the most valuable gift you have given. You have shown us the way back home back to Kṛṣṇa.

Without your mercy, I would still be caught in ignorance. Your instructions are my shelter. When my determination becomes weak, your words give me strength. Now, my life has a meaning only because you have connected me to Kṛṣṇa.

Sometimes, I think, what would my life be like if you had not come into this world. I would've been running after temporary things and I would've never known the sweetness of Kṛṣṇa consciousness. You have saved me from such a life and gave me the greatest treasure.

I know I'm still far from the standard you have shown. My mind is restless, my chanting is not always attentive, I'm not disciplined in doing my sadhana properly. Sometimes, I feel sad, because I do not fully understand or value what you have given.

Srila Prabhupada, my only hope is you. You are Kṛṣṇa eka śaraṇa and I want to be Prabhupada eka śaraṇa. I believe that if I can just hold on to your lotus feet, you will slowly help me understand the value of the holy name and devotional service. You will help me give up my laziness and carelessness and help me become a real servant of the servant.

On this Vyasa pūja day, I want to place a simple and sincere promise at your lotus feet.

I will try to read your books everyday, even if it is just a little, so that your teachings stay in my heart.

I will try to chant my rounds as attentively as I can, praying that my heart will one day become pure.

I will try to hear your lectures regularly, so that your voice guides me in the right path.

Please bless me to keep my promise for the whole life. Please never let me leave your shelter. Please let my life be used, even in a small way, for your mission. I have nothing to give you except my small effort and my desire to stay at the shelter of your lotus feet.

Your small aspiring servant,

To,
His Divine Grace.
Srila prabhupada.

My Dear Srila Prabhupada,
please accept my humble obeisance's at your lotus feet. All glories to you!

I will be eternally grateful to you for showing us the right path of pure devotional service onto the supreme Personality of Godhead Krishna and saving me from impersonalism. I still remember when I was extremely frustrated from the illusionary energy and wandering in depression. It is only your causeless mercy Srila prabhupada that I came to touch with ISKCON devotees and reading your transcendental books.

I will be eternally indebted to you for giving me Krishna consciousness in my life and giving me shelter. Srila prabhupada my humble desire onto your lotus feet is please always keep me under the shelter of your lotus feet and bless me so that I can serve you under the instructions of your confidential devotees. I bow forever at your lotus feet in humble gratitude, Hare Krishna.

Your eternal servant,

I don't know how to say thanks to you, from childhood onwards I have been doing so many sinful activities and very very very little pious things that too i'm not sure if have been a so called devotee, i have been a atheist, again I have been a so called devotee and also mayavadhi I don't know when or how but on one day in front of Shrimati Radha Rani's photo in my mobile looking at her lotus feet i surrender myself to her and asked for guidance for the ultimate goal of human life even though I was committed so many sinful activities, because of her mercy she make me know about you and your mission through your deciple's deciples. You have done so much to fullfill order of your spiritual master. You have given us sri sri gaur nithai and established so many temples all over the world it's only because of your mercy that all the people in every country is chanting holy names of Lord gaur Hari and nityananda Prabhu and chanting the Hare Krishna maha mantra. You have given us so many books to elevate our concisnes. Prabhupad ji I don't know how to thank you if you're not there then this poor and the most contaminated and fallen soul will never be able to get the pure knowledge of krishna and it's only because of your mercy today somehow or other way im able to serve vaishnavas of sri sri RadhaMadhanmohan ji.

I wish that with your mercy I want to engage this body this mind this soul everything in devotional service in this life and another if i get human form and never forget your mercy and Radha Krishna every circumstances.

Thank you for giving me an opportunity to give this little offering from my side.

Vyasa Puja Offering to Srila Prabhupada

Submitted by: Kaveri

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to you.

On this most sacred day of your 129th Appearance, I offer my heartfelt gratitude to you. You came into this world not for your own sake, but to give us the greatest gift — Krishna consciousness. Your compassion knew no bounds; your books, your instructions, and your example have become the light that guides countless souls, including mine, toward Krishna.

Though I am unqualified, I am forever indebted to you for showing the true meaning of life, for building temples of devotion across the world, and for teaching us how to live with integrity, humility, and deep love for Krishna.

Your every word purifies. Your every step is a miracle. You are forever my spiritual grandfather, and I pray that I may one day serve you with the sincerity and steadiness that pleases you.

Please bless me so I may remain loyal to your mission and always seek shelter at your lotus feet.

Your aspiring servant,

Kaveri

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

I can't even imagine my life without you and Krishna. I have come into Krishna Consciousness by reading your Bhagavat Gita As it Is. Later on started visiting ISKCON temple. With your mercy you have sent your disciples to preach us Bhakti. I am a toddler in Krishna bhakti and seek your blessings to advance in Bhakti. Please show your mercy on all of us and give us strength to spread your message of krishna bhakti. Please bless me so that I can chant, Listen to and read your books, do srivigraharadhana and do seva for Radha Krishna and Vaishnavas.

Wishing to be Your servant,

Srinidhi Gajula.

Dear Srila Prabhupada Prabhuji,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to you.

On this auspicious occasion of your 129th Appearance Day, I offer my heartfelt gratitude. Your books and teachings have changed the direction of my life. Your selfless service to Lord Krishna continues to guide millions like me.

I pray to serve ISKCON in any way possible and stay connected to your mission.

Thank you for being the torchlight of bhakti in this age.

VYAS PUJA OFFERING by Gollapalli Bhargavi 2025 Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All glories to you, the eternal light in the darkness of this world.

I am just a small spark trying to reach the sun -- a newcomer in the vast ocean of your teachings, but even this tender heart has been touched by the mercy that flows from your lotus feet.

Prabhupada, you never saw language, nation, or age -- you saw the soul, and I, too, wish to see as you did.

I don't come with knowledge or great offerings.

But I bring my desire -- raw, real, and rising.

I bring my inner cry -- to serve Krishna purely, to chant with attention, to become free from pride, laziness, and fear.

You made the impossible possible.

Your words entered lands unknown, but more than that, they entered hearts like mine -- young, unsure, yet full of longing.

Srila Prabhupada, please keep me under your glance.

Even if I fail a hundred times, even if I forget myself, please don't let me forget you.

Let my life be your offering -- not just today, but every breath that follows.

Make me an instrument, even if I tremble.

Even if I stumble, let my steps fall forward -- towards your mission, towards Krishna's feet.

Thank you for walking for us, writing for us, weeping for us, fighting illusion for us.

In your glance, I am no longer lost.

In your smile, I find my soul.

Forever your tiny servant,

Gollapalli Bhargavi

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

You appeared in this world with a pure heart full of compassion. You gave us the gift of Krishna Consciousness through ISKCON, and because of your efforts, so many lives have changed. I personally experienced many changes in my life, your books, your words, and your example continue to inspire thousands. You showed us that real happiness comes by serving Krishna and not by hankering for material things. Because of you, we now have a beautiful temple in Hyderabad Sri Sri Radha Madana Mohana where people can take beautiful darshan, chant, hear about the Lord, and live a life full of meaning. By visiting your Quarters we feel your divine presence.

We are forever thankful to you, Srila Prabhupada. Please bless us so that we can continue your mission sincerely.

All glories to you, Srila Prabhupada!

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All glories to Your Divine Grace.

I am writing this letter with a heart overflowing with gratitude. Although I am but an insignificant soul, your causeless mercy has touched my life in ways beyond measure. You came to this world solely to deliver us from the darkness of ignorance, and through your words, actions, and books, you have given us direct access to the eternal light of Krishna consciousness.

Srila Prabhupada, you endured great hardships leaving the shelter of Sri Vrindavan Dham, boarding the Jaladuta at an advanced age, suffering illness and discomfort all so that fallen souls like me could receive the treasure of bhakti. Your compassion knows no bounds. Every verse, every purport, every instruction from your lotus lips is like a priceless jewel, filled with eternal wisdom and pure love for Krishna.

You have taught us that real happiness lies not in material gain but in serving the Supreme Lord and His devotees. You have shown by your personal example how to live simply, think deeply, and serve wholeheartedly. Your presence continues to guide me through your books, your lectures, your kirtans, and your disciples who carry forward your mission.

I am forever indebted to you, Srila Prabhupada. Whatever small attempts I make in chanting, serving, or sharing Krishna consciousness are only possible because of the seeds you have sown in the hearts of millions. I pray for the strength to serve your mission sincerely, to follow your instructions without deviation, and to always remember your kindness.

Please bless me that I may remain a faithful servant of your servants, life after life. May I never forget the shelter of your lotus feet, for they are my only refuge.

Your eternally grateful servant,

Sai Rahul

My Dear beloved Srila Prabhupad,

Please accept my millions and millions of humble obeisances at your holy lotus feet. Today I am extremely happy and grateful to express my deep heart-felt gratitude at your holy feet on the occasion your auspicious 129th appearance day. 24 years are completed in your divine association. It may appear very long period but for me it is only a few days or a few hours. When I look 24 years back and I observe my present personality, there is a drastic change in my thought process, in my behavior and in my attitude. Your Divine Grace brought me out from complete Ignorance to Divine path of Bhakthi Yoga.

By hearing the Divine song sung by your beloved disciple H.H Jayapathaka Swamy Maharaj- - - "Yadi Prabhupad na Hoite". I moved into tears. Whatever maharaj said is hundred percent truth. If your Divine Grace was not there ---

- a) How can I study BG & SB?
- b) How can I go far yatra?
- c) How can I do Deity worship with love?
- d) How can I chant Hare Krishna Maha Mantra?
- e) How can I follow 4 regulative principles?
- f) How can we understand the greatness of Dhams like Mayapur & Vrindavan?

- g) How can we have the prestigious Institution like ISKCON?
- h) How can we participate in Ratha Yatras and Sri Krishna Janmastami festivals?
- i) How can we have Krishna Katha in the devotee's association?
- j) How can we purify our body, our mind, our intelligence, our ahankara and soul?

Your Divine Grace is the only person who spread the Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, Hare Krishna Maha Mantra and the process of Bhakthi Yoga throughout the world. It is only through Bakthi Yoga we can develop pure love and affection toward Sri Radha Krishna, who is the supreme personality of God Head. You are the only person who strongly stressed the root cause of suffering of the conditioned soul i.e to forget his relationship with Lord Sri Krishna and to forget his constitutional position as a servant or servant of Lord Krishna. The essence of all your teachings is to realize our constitutional position as a servant or servant of Lord Krishna and to serve Him and His devotees eternally. Because of your causeless mercy we learn how to lead a beautiful, simple, regulated and disciplined life in any Ashram and can work for the welfare of the society.

By the process of devotional service, we learn how to use our senses, mind and intelligence in the service of the Lord and in the service of His Devotees, which brings liberation from this material bondage. We became free from all unnecessary anxieties and relationships and our only goal became to love and serve Sri Sri Radha Madhanmohan Ji.

Before five hundred years back we have seen great devotees like Bhaktha Ramadas, Bhaktha Thukaram, Bhaktha Pundarika, Bhaktha Meerabai, Bhaktha Sakkubai etc. They may be devotees from their childhood but your Divine Grace made so many conditional souls into such sincere devotees whom I mentioned above. Your Divine Grace provided great shelter for any soul regardless of his caste, creed, nationality, social status, Education etc. You are the only person who recognized the deep suffering of the conditioned souls, due to their utter ignorance. Out of your deep compassion and love gave them the path of Bhakthi yoga.

My dear Srila Prabupada,
to follow divine instruction of your spiritual master His Divine Grace Bhakthi Siddhanta Saraswathi Takur Maharaj i.e to spread Krishna Consciousness through the entire world and to print divine books like Bhagavath Geeta, Srimad Bhagavatham and Chaitanya Charitamrutha, you spent your entire of 40 years, you spent every drop of your blood and you ignored your personal conveniences and even you left your comfortable life in the holy place of Vrindavan.

My dear Srila Prabupada,

Whoever sincerely follows your instructions can transform his life from Kurukhetra to Vrindavan i.e greatness of your divine association.

Your divine qualities like ----Tolerance, Determination, Commitment, Compassion, Pure love, Spiritual knowledge, Personal dealings with different types of devotees and with normal people, fearlessness, Dependence on Krishna, Purity of consciousness, Self-control, Simplicity, Austerity, Sacrifice, Truthfulness, Renunciation, Nonviolence, Tranquility, Aversion to fault-finding, Gentleness, Forgiveness, Cleanliness, Long Vision, Non-Envious, Protecting the Needy Etc... attracted the hard-core hearts of so many hippies in the area of Bhoi, Lower east area, Second Avenue 29 and in Toms Square Park.

Latter the same hippies became great devotees by your divine association.

Your divine grace has to face so many challenges in the construction of huge temples like Mayapur, Vrindavan and Juhu in Mumbai and in other places.

At present those temples are providing utmost shelter for innumerable devotees throughout the world.

Your divine grace is the ocean love, ocean of sacrifice, ocean of compassion, ocean of spiritual knowledge and ocean of service and it is my duty and the duty of all your followers is to become an exemplary devotee and to develop a deep desire to serve your mission up to our last breath of our life and it is our duty to recognize, from moment to moment, your great sacrifice to establish ISKCON.

I sincerely pray to the HOLY LOTUS FEET OF SRI SRI RADHA MADHANMOHAN JI to give THEIR MOST AUSPICIOUS BLESSINGS to all of your followers, throughout the world, so that they can continue their service to your divine mission.

Your Humble Servant of Servant,

Aradhitha Devi Dasi.

Dear srila prabhupada

Accept my humble obeisances .

You are saviour of fallen soul like me. Always gets thought where are you came from ? are you from spiritual world or is it your last birth on earth to go back home back to god head. You went America for spreading krishna consciousness in old age that shows your determination and unshakable faith in lord. It is a act which gives goosebumps. This question always arises after reaching USA how you struggled gives tears in eyes. You faced interviews by many scientists, Christian/Muslim crusades/scholars/western media but you never felt tired in answering or you never failed in answering them you answered with utmost patience quoting slokas from scriptures they got satisfied and many became your disciples. Always gets a question what gave you motivation or energy to roam around the world for establishing 108 temples and spreading krishna consciousness without any compromises in standards. In your lectures many times you used rascals to those doesn't believe in god this shows your bravery . You explained all living entities are sacred souls each one part and parcel of god. You are krishna's bonafied representative. I always feel happy to come and feel fortunate for iskcon hyderabad which was established by you personally . I feel like it is directly established by bona-fide god representative then I feel unexplainable happiness. As this was established by god representative so who ever comes here are surely in God's notice i feel.

To be understood your wisdom, pure devotion, setting standards to start iskcon are a higher level of awareness or spiritual insight is needed. Such a greatest qualities you have. After hearing about you i feel like a soul with unshakable faith can do marvelous in bhakthi, because entire world chanting Hare krishna mahamantra, every hour book distribution, every hour Mangala harathi , every hour sacred prasadam distribution, every hour a lecture etc.. happening somewhere or the other in the world. This really conveys message a true devotee can do such great things.

Dear prabhupada always keep us in krishna consciousness and inspire , guide us with invisible force , purify all souls make us eligible to go back home back to god head. Make me such a soul that this will be my last birth in the material world and reach lords abode.

Remove all challenges if any of GBC, ISKCONS, of your direct disciples, of all devotees of past, present and future . O saviour of fallen souls who truly seeks god you are boon to this world bless me ,my parents,brothers,sister in laws,sons and daughter,grand parents and all devotees.Your eternal servant

A fallen soul

Dear Srila Prabhupada, Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All glories to you on this most auspicious day of your Vyasa-puja.

Since the Lord always enjoys hearing the glories of His pure devotees, I pray to you to kindly bestow upon me the divine intelligence and purity of heart to glorify you in a way that pleases both yourself and the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Sri Sri Radha-Madanmohan. I know I am not qualified to write about your unlimited glories, but I beg for your mercy to do so.

Among the countless priceless gifts you have given to this world, the most powerful is the distribution of the holy names of the Lord—Hari nama—Hare Krishna Maha Mantra to everyone, even to unworthy souls like myself. By your compassion, the highest treasure has been made available without restriction.

By your causeless mercy, in 2014, at Bhubaneswar, I came in contact with ISKCON and was gradually guided by many of your wonderful disciple's disciples and followers—from HG Tusta Gopal Das, to HG Tarun Mohan Prabhu Ji, and finally now under the guidance of HG Madan Kumar Prabhu Ji. Through them, I feel your mercy and presence at every step.

Although I am still struggling due to the weight of my own sins—sometimes finding it difficult to consistently chant my 16 rounds, follow the four regulative principles, and practice the ABCDE of devotion—I remain hopeful. With the help of your sincere and empowered grand disciple like HG Madan Kumar Prabhu and others, I will never give up the practice of Krishna consciousness.

On this most auspicious day, I humbly beg you to continue to shower your blessings upon me, so that I may become an instrument in your mission. Please grant me the strength to accept all austerities required in service, and the intelligence to always act according to your instructions, under the shelter of your divine movement, in the association of your pure-hearted devotees.

Please forgive all my offenses and kindly allow me to remain forever engaged in your service.

Falling at the dust of your lotus feet, I beg to remain,

Your tiny servant,

Harihara swain

Hare Krishna prabhuji dandavat pranams , all glories to HDG Srila Prabhupada, please accept my humble obesences.

I want to express my deepest gratitude for your profound teachings in Krishna consciousness, inspiring Krishna teaching and storing them in the form of your books, and compassionate spiritual path and guidance given by you to the fallen souls. Your spritual wisdom has touched many hearts and souls, illuminating our path and transforming our spiritual journey .

Your books have been a source of spiritual knowledge, deep inspiration, and spiritual growth. Your words have resonated deeply and touched everyone heartand soul, and offering spritual guidance and showing the spiritual path to library from material world.

Thank you for sharing your enlightened wisdom with the world. I'm forever grateful for the impact you've had on my life.

Please accept my humble obesences, dandavat pranams and heartfelt gratitude."

Hare Krishna Anantanta Koti Dandavat Pranam GuruDev, Jagadguru Srila Prabhupad.

Your presence on this planet itself is a blessing for every aatma, Your Narrations, Books, Stories, Kirtans, Guidelines, Establishments --- Every Every activity you have done for ease of understanding and stressed again and again that this Human life is for a definite purpose only to awaken Krishna Conscious ness and Chant Hare Krishna Mantra so that we again rebuild our lost association with Lord, Bhagavan SriKrishna.

With your grace, blessings attended one programme, chanted once – Hare Krishna Maha Mantra, You & Lord Krishna giving me opportunities again and again. In a form which I understand, even when I am distanced due to my capabilities.

Nothing is sufficient to support the cause you have initiated. Our Guru Maharaja's, Senior Vaishnava's creating wonderful project's and making your presence felt always.

We are blessed to be under your guidance always. Please make us more realistic, practical, delivery oriented and allow us to complete responsibilities and make attempts to keep everyone in K.C.

Please Please I beg you beg you Prabhupad, give me enough will power, strength, health to develop true consistency in following all ABCD Principles, Vaisnava guidelines and join in to the Sankeertana Movement.

Please keep showering entire mercy to every creature, to me also.

Hare Krishna.

జగద్గురు శ్రీల ప్రభుపాదుల వారి 129 వ అవతరణ సందర్భంగా
కృతజ్ఞత పూర్వక నివేదన లేఖ 2025 సమర్పణ.

కృష్ణ కృపా మూర్తి శ్రీల ప్రభుపాదుల పాద పద్మాలకు సహస్ర కోటి సాష్టాంగ ప్రణామాలు. కలతలు కష్టాలకు నిత్యం గురవుతున్నట్టి మానవాళి పట్ల అత్యంత దయతో వారి జీవితాలలో సదా ఆనందం నింపాడనికి వారికి కృష్ణ చైతన్యమనే సంజీవనిని అందించారు. ఎన్నో జన్మల నుండి ప్రోగుపడిన వారి పాపకర్మల ఫలితాలు నశించడానికి తరతమ భేదాలు పాటించకుండా అందరికి హరే కృష్ణ మహా మంత్రాన్ని ఉదారంగా అందజేశారు. ఇదే మానవాళికి నిజమైన విప్లవాత్మకమైన సామజిక న్యాయము.

మీరు మొదటిసారిగా శ్రీల భక్తి సిద్ధాంత సరస్వతి గారిని కలిసినపుడు బెంగాలీ, హిందీ చాల మందికి అర్థం కాకపోయినా-- ఆంగ్ల భాష విద్యావంతులందరు అర్థము చేసుకోగలరు. ఆ పరిజ్ఞానము కలిగి ఉన్న మీరు సంస్కృత వైదిక సాహిత్యాన్ని ఆంగ్ల భాష లోనికి అనువాదం చేసి కృష్ణ చైతన్యన్నీ విశ్వమంతా విరివిగా పంచుము-- అనే ఆదేశాన్ని దివ్యమైన మార్గ దర్శకంగా భావించారు. జీవిత కాలమంతా వైదిక సాహిత్యాన్ని ఆంగ్లము లోనికి అనువాదము చేయడానికి వినియోగించారు. రోజుకు రెండు గంటలు మాత్రమే విశ్రాంతి తీసుకోని మిగిలిన జీవిత సమయమంతా ఈ ప్రయోజనము కొరకే వినియోగించారు. ఈ ప్రయత్నయంలో శారీరక రుగ్మతలను, వృద్ధాప్యాన్ని మీరు విస్మరించారు. అలా ఆంగ్లములోనికి మీరు అనువదించిన వైదిక సాహిత్యము అరవైకి పైగా స్థానిక భాషలలోకి అనువదించబడి విశ్వపు నలుమూలల అందుబాటులోనికి వచ్చింది. తద్వారా కృష్ణ చైతన్యము ప్రపంచమంతా వ్యాపించడానికి దారి తీసినది. ఒక ప్రక్క వైదిక గ్రంథాల ఆంగ్ల అనువాదము కొనసాగిస్తూ మరొక ప్రక్క వాటిని ముద్రించి పంపిణీ చేయడం ద్వారా సామాన్య మానవాళి పాపమయ జీవితాలలో విప్లవాత్మక మార్పు తీసుకువచ్చారు.

ఆధ్యాత్మిక చైతన్య ప్రేరణకు ఈ పుస్తకాలే మూలాధారమైనవి. వివిధ పురాణాలలోని, ఉపనిషత్తులలోనీ విషయాలను సమన్వయపరచి రసామృతంగా అందచేశారు. వివిధ దేశాలలో మీరు రాధా కృష్ణ మందిరాలను ఏర్పాటు చేసి వాటిని వైదిక జ్ఞాన సంపద పంపిణీ

కేంద్రాలుగా మలిచారు. మీరు ఏర్పాటు చేసిన 108 రాధా కృష్ణ మందిరాలు ప్రస్తుతం వేయి వరకు చేరినవి.

పాశ్చాత్య దేశమైన అమెరికా దేశానికి కృష్ణ దూతగా, జల ధూతలో ప్రయాణించి అంతర్జాతీయ కృష్ణ చైతన్య సంస్థను స్థాపించారు. హిప్పీలుగా ఒంటరితనంతో శోకమయ జీవితం గడుపుతున్నవారిని కృష్ణ భక్తులుగా చేసి హేపీలుగా మార్చివేశారు. శాన్ ఫ్రాన్సిస్కో లో మీరు జరిపిన శ్రీ జగన్నాథ రథ యాత్ర విదేశాలలో జరిగిన మొట్టమొదటి రథ యాత్ర. బ్రిటిష్ వారు జగన్నాథపురి లోని రథ యాత్రను కుటిల ప్రయత్నాలతో ఆపడానికి ప్రయత్నించారు. కానీ మీరు వాళ్ళ రాజధాని ఐన లండన్ లో రథ యాత్రను గొప్పగా నిర్వహించారు. మీ జీవిత ఆశయము సిద్ధించుకొనుటకు పాశ్చాత్య దేశాలలో, స్వదేశంలో కృష్ణ చైతన్య జ్ఞానాన్ని తగిన శిక్షణను ఇవ్వడం ద్వారా గొప్ప భక్తులను మహారాజులుగా మార్చి వేశారు. ఆ మహారాజులందరు శుద్ధ సత్వంలో వివిధ ప్రాంతాలను పర్యటించి అక్కడ కృష్ణ భక్తుల సమూహాలను ఏర్పరచు చున్నారు.

అన్ని ప్రదేశాలలో రాధా కృష్ణ మందిరాలను ఏర్పాటుచేసి వాటిని దివ్య తీర్థ క్షేత్రాలుగా మార్చుచున్నారు. మీరు అనువదించిన భగవద్గీత యథా తథం, శ్రీమత్ భాగవతము, మరియు చైతన్య చరితామృతము వంటి వైదిక గ్రంథాలను వివిధ భాషలలో ముద్రింపచేసి ప్రపంచమంతా పంపిణీ చేస్తున్నారు. వైష్ణవ పండుగలు ఉత్సహంగా అన్ని రాధా కృష్ణ మందిరాలలో జరుపుకొనే అవకాశాన్ని కల్పిస్తున్నారు. ప్రధాన మందిరాలలో, అనుబంధ భక్తి కేంద్రాలలో- దైనందిన భక్తి యుక్త కార్యకలాపాలు సక్రమముగా సమయపాలనతో జరిగేలా పర్యవేక్షిస్తున్నారు.

మహారాజు లందరు బద్ధ జీవులందరి పట్ల ఎంతో దయతో ప్రతి రోజు 16 మాలలు హరే కృష్ణ మహా మంత్రము జపము చేస్తూ, నాలుగు నియమాలు పాటించే వేలాది మంది భక్తులకు హరి నామ దీక్షనిచ్చిజీవిత కాల భక్తులుగా మార్చుచున్నారు. తమ ప్రవర్తనలో, పరస్పర సంబంధాలలో మీ ఆశయాలను ప్రతి బింబించుచున్నారు.

నిత్యం భాగవత సేవ జరిగేలా అన్ని రాధా కృష్ణ మందిరాలలో
భగవద్గీత, శ్రీమద్భాగవతము, చైతన్య చరితామృతము పైన శుద్ధ
భక్తులు ప్రవచనాలు ఇచ్చేలా ఏర్పాటుచేశారు.

మహారాజు లందరు మీరు అందచేసిన వైదిక సంస్కృతి దశ దిశలా
వ్యాప్తి చెంది కొనసాగేలా ప్రోత్సాహిస్తున్నారు. మీరు ప్రారంభించిన
"భగవద్దర్శనం" మేగజైన్ మరింత ఆకర్షణీయంగా సర్వుల
మనస్సులకు హత్తుకునే విధంగా మార్పులు చేర్పులు చేసి
కొనసాగించుచున్నారు. జగద్గురువుగా కృష్ణ చైతన్య
సంస్థాపకచార్యులుగా మానవాళి శ్రేయస్సుకొరకు మీరు అందించిన
సేవలన్నింటినీ మరింత విస్తరిస్తూ, అన్ని చోట్ల కొనసాగిస్తున్నారు.
అన్ని మందిరాలలో భక్తి వృక్ష, భక్తి శాస్త్రి తరగతుల నిర్వహణకు
ప్రాధాన్యతనిస్తున్నారు. మీ అడుగు జాడలలో నడుస్తూ మీరు
ఏర్పాటు చేసిన నియమ నిబంధనలను పాటిస్తూ హైదరాబాద్ రాధా
మధనమోహన్ మందిరంలోని యాజమాన్యము చుట్టు ప్రక్కల
దాదాపు 100 భక్తి కుటీరములను ఏర్పాటుకు ప్రయత్నిస్తున్నారు. ఈ
నగరమంతా కృష్ణ చైతన్యవంతం కావడానికి, శాంతి సమరస్యాలు
వృద్ధి చెందడానికి సర్వ విధాలా కృషి చేస్తున్నారు. ఈ మందిర
ప్రాంగణ విస్తరణకు కూడా ప్రయత్నం చేస్తున్నారు. ప్రతి
ఆదివారము ఉన్నత వైష్ణవులతో ప్రవచనాలు ఇచ్చే ఏర్పాటు
చేసారు.

నేను ఒక పతిత జీవునిగా, బద్ధ జీవితాన్ని కొనసాగిస్తున్నాను.
ఇంద్రియ తృప్తి కార్యాల పట్ల ఇంకా అనాసక్తత కలుగుట లేదు. కామ,
క్రోధ, మరియు లోభాలు ఇంకా పూర్తిగా నియంత్రణలోకి రాలేదు. హరి
నామ దీక్ష పొందినప్పటికీ హరే కృష్ణ మహా మంత్రాన్ని శ్రద్ధతో,
ఏకాగ్రతతో జపించలేక పోవుచున్నాను. వయసు మీరుతున్నా
తీవ్రంగా భక్తి యుక్త సేవలో పూర్తిగా నిమగ్నం కాలేక పోతున్నాను.
జీవితాన్ని కృష్ణమయం చేయలేకపోవుతున్నాను.
భక్తి యుక్త జీవితం లో ఇలా ఎన్నో లోపాలు, అసంపూర్ణాలు,
అసమగ్రతలు ఉన్నాయి. ఐనప్పటికీ మీరు చూపిన మార్గాన్ని

అనుసరిస్తూ హరే కృష్ణ మహా మంత్రాన్ని జపిస్తూ రాధా మదన్మోహన్ పాదాశ్రయాన్ని విడిచిపెట్టలేదు. భగవద్గీత లో శ్రీ కృష్ణ భగవానుడు "నమే భక్త ప్రణశ్యత్" అని ఇచ్చిన అభయం పైన, కృష్ణ చైతన్యంలోనికి ఒక సారి ప్రవేశించిన వ్యక్తి అందులోనే కొనసాగుతారని మీ ప్రవచనాల ద్వారా మీరు కలిగించిన నమ్మకం పైన పూర్తి విశ్వాసంతో భక్తి యుక్త జీవితాన్ని కొనసాగిస్తున్నాను. ఈ జీవన యాత్ర తమ కృపా కటాక్షంతో సఫలీకృతం అవుతుందని ఆశతో వున్నాను. జీవితాంతము కృష్ణ చైతన్యంలో కొనసాగుతూ, వైష్ణవులకు చేయగలిగినంత సేవ చేస్తూ, పరిణతి చెందిన వైష్ణవుల మార్గదర్శకంలో మరియు వారి సాంగత్యంలో జీవితం గడపడానికి మీ దీవెనలు కోరుకుంటున్నాను. భక్తి వృక్షలో ఉన్న భక్తులకు సరైన రీతిలో సేవ చేసేలా మార్గ దర్శనం చేయవలసినదిగా ప్రార్థిస్తున్నాను. ఈ రాధా మదన్మోహన్ మందిర యాజమాన్యానికి ప్రేమ పూర్వకంగా సేవ చేసేలా అనుగ్రహించవలసినదిగా వేడుకొనుచున్నాను. మీ 129వ అవతరణ దిన సందర్భంగా మీకు కృష్ణ చైతన్యంతో కూడిన జన్మదిన శుభాకాంక్షలు తెలియచేయుచున్నాను.

మీ వినమ్ర సేవకుడు,
నరసింహ స్తుతి దాస్.

My humble obsceinces to lotus feet of HDG Srila Prabhupada. .

You are such a wonderful GURU healing the whole world with Maha mantra

"HARE KRISHNA HARE KRISHNA KRISHNA KRISHNA HARE HARE

HARE RAMA HARE RAMA RAMA RAMA HARE HARE."

And even let us knew " Who am I ?", a soul/ a body?.

You have proved and showed the path that one can practice bhakti even as a Grihastha. The most important thing is that there is no any religious obligation to be in Krishna consciousness. You have given an assurance that you would be standing at the entrance of GOLOKA to receive all the devotees who really want to serve and surrender to LORD KRISHNA with love. We are blessed and very fortunate to have YOU as a SPIRITUAL GURU.

Yours servant of the servant of servant,

Thanks to the establishment of ISKCON by Srila Prabhupada, I understood how to do service to lord Radha Krishna with love.

Recently I have started reading Lilamrita and covered 3 chapters so far from Volume 1. What I understood is that:

1. How one should obey the orders of spiritual Guru and work sincerely towards the implementation of order given by Guru
2. Krishna consciousness is more important than anything else
3. We should use everything in service of lord Krishna
4. How children should be fostered as True Vaishnava.
5. Even if we are performing daily duties, we should not forget Krishna, Krishna should be the centre of every activity.

I came to know about the Bhakti Vriksha model and the principles involved in the following Bhakti Vriksha model this year

Till 4 months ago, I used to work in an office for more than 9 hours. Now my mindset is changed and focused towards Krishna consciousness. Now I am thinking whenever I will get time during office hours, start reading your books to prepare myself for preaching. I started implementing it last month. Now, my mindset is that I work in an office only to maintain living.

Prabhupada, I came to know from one of your books that whatever you know about Krishna consciousness, you go and preach. This statement really inspired me to go for preaching. Recently started a house program model for preaching.

Sat-Sang is the important thing one should do to progress in a spiritual way. Spiritual classes by various Maharajas and prabhujis inspired me a lot and showed the way to progress in spiritual life.

Thanks to the mercy of Radhakrishna, his associates and Vaishnavas on me, I was able to contribute for distribution of books of Prabhupad at my capacity especially the Bhagavad Gita. books and will continue to do so.

It is important to distribute Prabhupad books especially Bhagavad Gita and Bhagavatam. Reading the books of Bhagavad Gita and Bhagavatam will help one as to how lead human life the way it was meant. If we listen to the sessions of Bhagavad Gita and Bhagavatam from the people who come in guru succession, then it will help us to understand exactly the way it meant when we read.

After knowing how you spent life, now decided to dedicate more time for reading your books and involve in preaching activities. Kindly bless me.

Whatever I am going to say now may sound like a fantasy, however I would like to wish it to happen in the near future.

In corporates and educational institutions, people should greet Hare Krishna instead of Good morning/afternoon/evening/night.

In most of the corporates, we will have fun Friday for 15-30 minutes. Instead, I would wish discussion on Bhagavad Gita and Bhagavatam should happen so that people will understand the real meaning of human life. This should happen every Friday regularly. Classes should be taken by one of the speakers who is from guru parampara.

On that day (Friday), males should wear dhotis and kurtas and females should come in traditional dress.

If this happens that is the true tribute we are going to pay to you. You would be happy as people realised the importance of Gita and Bhagavatam at corporate level. Reading how you conduct Ratha Yatra during your childhood in your place, with the blessings of lord Radha Krishna, Acharyas and vaishnavas, planning for Ratha Yatra in 2026 at my place at our capacity for creating awareness among local people. I would like to focus more on Sravanam and Keerthanam. I read how you used to listen attentively when your Guru Maharaj used to tell Hari Katha. The more we listen about lord Radha Krishna leelas from Gurus who are from parampara succession, we get a better understanding about Lord Radha Krishna.

I have experienced so many times, that if we forget Krishna, Maya will welcome us. If we believe in Krishna firmly, he will definitely help us.

I know Krishna consciousness is the right path however not as easy as we think. There will be so many obstacles in our way. However you led by an example that with sincerity, determination and true faith in lord Radha Krishna, we can overcome all those challenges.

I am dasanu anudasa.

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my most respectful obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to you and to the saṅkīrtana mission of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, which you have so mercifully preached and expanded all over the world.

In the material world, small children naturally worship their father, but as they grow, they often manifest their own desires and choose their own path. Yet the blessed child of a learned and noble father learns to love deeply and to faithfully follow his worthy father.

How fortunate we are to have you as our eternal father—You are the Supreme Lord's own dearest agent, the merciful raincloud come to extinguish the blazing fire of birth and death that engulfs this world. By your kindness alone, we may transcend our inner conflicts and again become purified souls.

Srila Prabhupada, you have taught that love begins with obedience—love for Krishna grows through obedience to the merciful instructions of the spiritual master. We must simply obey him, for in that obedience lies the seed of pure devotion. This is my understanding, and I pray at your lotus feet to increase and strengthen this transcendental knowledge within me, and to fix me forever as a truly humble servant of Your Divine Grace. There is nothing greater to desire, for to achieve such mercy is the greatest of all treasures.

Your eternal servant,

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

I offer my respectful obeisances unto you, who are very dear to Lord Krishna, having taken complete shelter at His lotus feet.

Our respectful obeisances are unto you, O spiritual master, servant of Sarasvatī Gosvāmī. You are kindly preaching the message of Lord Caitanya and delivering the Western countries, which are filled with impersonalism and voidism.

I am a fallen soul, a sinner, unworthy of your boundless mercy. O beloved Guru, though I am full of faults and shortcomings, I fall at your lotus feet and beg you please bless me with your mercy. Without your grace, I am lost. Kindly grant me the knowledge and strength to improve my bhakti and serve Krishna with sincerity.

O revered Srila Prabhupada, you are the shining beacon of spiritual light in this modern age of darkness. With unwavering devotion and boundless compassion, you brought the timeless wisdom of Krishna consciousness to every corner of the world. Through your sacred teachings and tireless love, you awakened millions from the deep sleep of material illusion, guiding them back to the eternal path of love, purity, and devotion.

From the beginning of my life, I was immersed in ignorance living as a non-vegetarian and keeping bad company. Then, by Krishna's arrangement, I met a colleague in my office who told me about Krishna consciousness. He connected me with HG Madan Kumar Prabhu, who deeply explained Krishna consciousness and spoke to me about you. Through him, I became inspired by your divine example and came to understand the real truth and purpose of life.

O my Guru Prabhupada, please forgive me for my past mistakes and grant me your causeless mercy. Though I am flawed and burdened by my past, I offer my heart in sincere devotion to you.

Your humble servant,

Debabrat

Hare Krishna

Sri guru and gauranga

All glories to srila prabhupada

During the mahakumbh which was held this year, during that time The Akhila Bharatiya Ahara declared prabhupada as vishwa guru. 1st time ever in history someone has been given the title vishwa guru openly to the whole world and that is our prabhupada. As krsna is all famous the pure devotees of krsna like prabhupada has also become famous by the instructions and mercy of his guru and krsna. Prabhupada was never behind fame money or power his mission was like a soul which is pure and eternal and was always behind preaching the instructions of mahaprabhu to the whole world and make people krsna conscious which is our constitutional natural position. It is because of prabhupada there is little peace and happiness in the world as millions of people are engaged in devotional service to krsna. Other spiritual organization also appreciate the work done by prabhupada in very less time and making the world better place to serve. It is because of iskcon that many big wealthy persons of the world are getting chance to engage their money in the service of krsna and devotees and people living at remote places get to know the science of krsna consciousness by prabhupada books and preaching. I pay obeisances to prabhupada for allowing me to be part of his body that is iskcon and pray to him that I serve him and his iskcon till my last breath and make my life perfect.

Thank you prabhupada for giving us everything we needed the most in our lives 🙏

What are all the things that I am Grateful for?

Prabhupada, I not even dare to imagine my life if you would not have been there. I was into overthinking, depression. I would have been completely losing my life, career, I might have also been into drugs, what not. Today what ever smile I have on my face, what ever respect I have, whatever grades I have, everything was impossible if you would not have been there. Iskcon provided me a new life filled with love and bliss. My entire life would have been in the sufferings due to my unrestricted senses and passion. I would have been a fool and a slave serving ungrateful materialists. I would not be happy with anything that I was doing in my life. You not only protected me in this life. I would have been entangled in this material world birth after birth. I would have been experiencing birth and death again and again. I would have been suffering like any thing in the hell. I might have losing the opportunity to know the importance of human life. But now, the life I am living is filled with respect, love and care of Vaishnavas. I have a hope on my future that Krishna will take care of it. I tried my best to be good at my studies. Friends and the society started looking me with respect. I am happy with my life. You not only made me happy in this life but also after Death.

My Service for you from last One year:

This year I got opportunities to serve as a Preacher, Facilitator, Service in charge, Accountant, Study In charge, Morning Program In charge. I distributed 50+ books. I spoke with more than 100 people and spoke few words about our moment. This year I tried my best to preach young University boys, among them one boy shifted to our Voice. Many of the boys started chanted HARE KRISHNA. This year I solved more than 600 coding questions, to showcase that, our devotees also top well materially to inspire young minds. I took more than 15 book reading sessions as part of our preaching. I served my counsellor my best. I tried serving as many Vaishnavas as possible in the Voice and in our Temple. I stayed in the Temple for a 1.5 month. I never missed chanting 16 rounds this year. I am trying my best to be pure at my character as you instruct.

I want to dedicate my life for you:

Inspired with your compassion and efforts you put for this moment, I decided to serve you as much as I can, till my last breath. This year I decided to try dedicating my life. I started avoiding personal, close talks with girls. But I still need your mercy, I am struggling with the shackles of Sex life. My past close relationships are agitating me so much. I beg you please send me some mercy on to me, let me completely dedicate my life for this moment. Let my heart be cleaned from lust. Let my impressions be cleaned. Let my dedication increases more and more rather than decreasing. I am a fallen soul, please protect me. Give me right intelligence. Protect me from illusion. Please take away my material attachments.

Sandesh Yadiki

Hare Krishna Dear Srila Prabhupada, please accept my humble obeisances unto your divine lotus feet.

As we sing in Guru puja prayers Cakshudan dilo jai, janme janme prabhu sei divya jnan hrde prakasito ... YOU have opened our darkened eyes and given transcendental vision, we will be indebted to you life after life.

Also you taught us sense gratification and Krishna consciousness go ill together.

But due to great past conditioning, I am from time to time forgetting this wonderful rare and most precious gift of Krishna Consciousness , but by the devotees association and their causeless mercy I am regaining your gift to me.

Srila Prabhupada you gave such wonderful devotees sanga who are very sincerely following your teaching and committed to spread this movement to more and more unfortunate souls.

Everyone had different methods of approach based on their inspiration they derived from your life and teaching and they are very sincerely benefiting so many unfortunate souls.

I feel so blessed to be in their association and to be making an insignificant contribution.

Let me not be envious of them but be proud of them and see your glorious movement is reaching many unfortunate souls like me.

You once said, our movement does not have any threat from outside but from only inside, let me never become any obstacle in your movement due pride and envy.

Recently I got to know from some devotees a different meaning of the name ISKCON, IS your KC on means, is your Krishna Consciousness on, are you Krishna Conscious the top most necessity of life.

But due to some petty reasons in this world I often lose my KC, but by your teaching and association of Guru Maharaj and devotees put my KC on from time to time.

Otherwise I will be totally lost in sense gratification.

It (KC) is like losing oxygen supply to the body, how dangerous to stop supply for a brief period also, similarly losing KC also but still, i risk of staking my KC for petty reasons, but your devotees are very kind to help me and reinstate me in my position and keep going in your service.

You are still protecting me through your teaching and devotees who are sincerely following you.

Thank you so much for all the wonderful gifts you gave me, for which I will be indebted to you life after life.

Your aspiring servant Prem Nartan Das.

Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada on 129th Appearance Day Nam om vishnupadaya krsna presthaya bhūthāle śrīmāte bhaktivedānta svamin iti nāmīnē | Namaste saraswate deve gauravani pracharine nirvishesha shunyavadi paschatyadesha tarine || My dear Srila Prabhupada, it has been a whole long year again after the 128th Vyas Puja.

I had so many questions back then. I knew I had reached the perfect place and that the shelter that you have given to all of us is unparalleled.

I had no speculation. Your lectures were being played in my ears day after day unfolding the beauty of Krishna Consciousness step by step.

I was not speculating though. You made me realize that the Krishna Conscious journey is a science and that the actual religion is Dharma and the actual Dharma is to serve the supreme Lord.

This has been the guiding principle for my journey since then.

I had questions about my Sadhana, my Krishna Conscious practice, and my accountability towards my mentors. I had questions about the Bhagavad Gita; how would I read and understand it with the very limited ability I have.

But every time I opened your purports, I had all the answers that I wanted. Who else could have given my soul the shelter that it requires. The vast literature that you gave us made it easy for us to travel in the path of Bhakti.

Today, along with reading your books, when I attempt to distribute these books, I always feel the strength lies in your purports, your translations because of which the books get distributed.

There were times when I had no strength in me to be able to distribute the books, but the mercy that I have been receiving from you made me stand straight and work for your mission, although I miserably fail to do so.

It has been a whole long year Prabhupada, of realizations, practice, determination to follow the path of Krishna Consciousness that you have very kindly given us.

But I failed to practice it sincerely. There were times that my foolish mind was wandering for material aims and duties leaving behind the primary mission of life, but it is your books that made me come back on track every single time I went off track and made me realize the love towards Krishna is my primary duty. Whenever I sit down to write these offerings, I really do not know where to start and where to end.

If I can think of a glorious spiritual master, it is only you. My mind goes numb, my eyes are filled with tears every time I think of the efforts you made for us, the difficulties you faced for all of us, which I could never imagine.

As you already know, I have been reading your Lilamrita. It has been my strength during difficult times.

It made my faith stronger in Krishna Consciousness along with which it also made me realize that I am an aspiring dog at your lotus feet. What other qualifications can I ask for? This is the best qualification I can ever have. I have been reading Bhagavad Gita attempting to understand your purports Prabhupada.

Every single purport brings me closer to you. And this I think is the only way I can imagine reaching Krishna.

The unique way in which you connect every other yoga practice to Krishna Consciousness and clearly explaining why it is so, makes my understanding of this science very clear.

When I heard the verse, “Gita Bhagavata Chaitanya Charita premamrita rasa sara...” from “Yadi Prabhupada Na hoito”, I was not initially sure of how I relish it. But now, every single time I open the Gita and read your purports, I relish the verse.

Who else other than you would have given us such a beautiful explanation of the Krishna Conscious science. We are all eternally indebted to you. The Science of Self Realization book that has a compilation of the talks, interviews and essays you gave for us has also been a guiding light for me and I made sure this book also reaches out to many people while I attempted to distribute the books.

Many transcendental realizations that you have kindly given us through this book make our journey on this path clearer and easier. The beautiful explanations you gave about the spiritual master made me realize the importance of serving a Guru and thus when I daily sing the Gurushtakam, I can only remember all that you have done for us.

There is so much more to read Prabhupada. I am such a miscreant that sometimes I forget the urgency and necessity of this mission and tend to drift away but the kind of love that you have been exchanging with me just with your books and lectures makes me stable again in this divine journey.

Your books helped me understand the causeless mercy of Gaur Nitai and now when I look at them in the temple, I can only cry for their mercy. I know you have asked us to cooperate in times of difficulties and issues with each other. I make every possible attempt for that to happen Prabhupada.

Even then due to my conditioning, I sometimes tend to not cooperate creating issues all around. But the ISKCON as a whole and the devotees were very kind in dealing with me and protecting me, the credit of which obviously goes to you, who made this society such a beautiful place to live in.

ISKCON Hyderabad has been and will forever be my base temple Prabhupada, no matter where I go. I very much feel the warmth of your presence here. I had my journey begun here. Thus, whenever I visit the temple for your guru puja, I can only cry and cry and cry falling at your lotus feet.

I have been listening to your lectures Prabhupada, day after day. I feel those lectures are the torch bearers for all of us. Where would we have gone if those lectures were not there. Lecture by lecture, my appreciation for the efforts you have made keep increasing and I can only repeatedly fall at your lotus feet.

Whenever I hear your lectures, there is a definite feeling of separation from you. Nevertheless, I heard one of your disciples, stating in Bhagavatam lecture in Vrindavan on how you demonstrated that you are non-different from your photo. Now when I write these offerings also, I see you in your photo form just opposite me and guiding me to write these offerings.

Else, what is the quality I have so that I can write these offerings for you. All through this year, I very well understood the importance of distributing your books Prabhupada and I have been making every attempt to do so.

Although with the operated leg I could not stand for long, I never wanted to miss a chance to distribute these books. But I lack that purity with which I can distribute more books. Whatever little quantity of books I was able to distribute, it was by your mercy, and I have no strength if you were not with me.

You made my connection deeper with the temple this year. I have had the opportunity to connect with devotees and serve you in every possible way. I do not say that I have done so much of the service.

What I did does not equal even a drop of water in the ocean but what I aspire for, is to remain at your lotus feet and serve you.

Devotees often say that I am so dedicated to your teachings.

I say why not be dedicated. In fact, I urge everyone to be dedicated, because I strongly believe your teachings are the only source we have in this age of darkness and hypocrisy.

As far as my dedication is concerned Prabhupada, I know I always fail to keep up my words of service unto you. I fail to follow your rules and regulations. I am filled with multiple anarthas which I may not be able to directly mention sometimes also.

I am filled with so much self-pride that I sometimes fear if they will take me away from you, which I never want. I am constantly in the process of purifying myself with the strength of your teachings and the chanting of the holy name.

Not forgetting the Lord, even for a moment is a definite wish I can aspire for but before that all that I can ask you for is to help me not forget you even for a moment of time Prabhupada. I need your mercy and blessings to be able to come out of my anarthas and purify myself.

jogyatā-vicāre, kichu nāhi pāi, tomāra karuṇā-sāra karuṇā nā hoile, kāndiyā kāndiyā, prāṇa nā rākhibo āra Whenever I heard this verse from Guru Maharaj, I always saw the extreme love he has for you.

I also aspire to have at least a small tinge of that love upon you. I realize very well Prabhupada, I have no qualifications in me, but you have been very merciful upon me that my existence in this Krishna Conscious journey has been possible only because of you.

I know very well that I am not qualified for writing these offerings, not qualified for anything but what other source do I have? What other strength do I have? If you did not shower your mercy upon me, I would only cry and cry for it. There were times when maintaining myself was also difficult but now, your mercy only made it possible.

All glories unto your lotus feet. Sometimes, due to my material duties and sometimes due to my health concerns, I tend to lose track, Prabhupada. But the only request I can make to you is to protect me, give me strength, not to achieve anything material, but, to achieve your lotus feet which are the only source that can take me to Krishna.

Whenever I hear someone saying Vaishnava Thakur, it is only you that I can remember about. Your mercy made us qualified; you pulled us out of the nescience of the material ocean and placed us under the happiest shelter of your lotus feet.

What else can I ask for? ekaki amara, nahi paya bala, hari-nama-sankirtane tumi kripa kori', sraddha-bindu diya, deho' krishna-nama-dhane krishna se tomara, krishna dite paro, tomara sakati ache ami to' kangala, 'krishna' 'krishna' boli', dhai tava pache pache I remember these verses whenever I sit for chanting.

I do not really know how well I chant. I cannot concentrate at times but then the treasure of Krishna's holy name is given to us by you, and this is a guiding factor for me. When you said in one of your lectures that Service are Upakaraka and Chanting is Uddharaka, that is when my useless mind understood the importance of chanting.

But I can never chant and sing the glories of the Lord all by myself, I do not have the strength, Prabhupada. I can only beg you to kindly give me the holy name and let me chant the glories of Lord without offence. Only you have that strength.

I have no other desires Prabhupada, I can eternally run after your lotus feet asking for Krishna from such a pure devotee as your divine grace. One more important thing I wanted to share with you, Prabhupada, as part of these offerings.

Last year, during this time, I was still not sure of whom I would take diksha from. When I asked you about this you guided me and now, I am an aspiring disciple of your disciple HH Bhakti Vikas Swami.

I know he represents you perfectly. This would not have been without your divine mercy. At the same time, you have blessed me with the fortune of being mentored by two siksha gurus, HG Tarun Mohan Prabhu ji and HH Venu Gopal Krishna Prabhu Ji.

Whatever I know of you today is because of them and I am also indebted to them for their care, concern, love and mercy towards me. All of this was possible because of you only. Thanks for introducing me to them.

I need your mercy Prabhupada just to be accountable to both of my mentors and thus travel in the path of self-realization in Krishna Consciousness. I am waiting for the day Guru Maharaj will accept me and give his shelter through which I can ultimately connect unto you also.

Your books are a definite form of initiation for us. They make us stable in this journey. Nevertheless, I really would like to get into the Parampara and serve you eternally Prabhupada. Not for any qualifications or credits but to be linked to the guru Parampara for the service that I would like to offer at your lotus feet.

I have no more words than this Prabhupada. I realize you already know whenever I think of you, I can only cry out of ecstasy and separation, but the light of your mercy has always been shining on me and that is what protects me.

I understand Prabhupada, although devotees and people say I am doing it right, but I know there is so much on this journey. Starting with my purification and self-realization through chanting and singing the glories of Lord to being able to understand your divine nature and be a humble servant to you, from reading your books every day without fail to distributing your books to the people, from hearing your lectures daily to preaching this message to the people, from serving in the temple to eternally serving your lotus feet in this mission of yours.

For all of this, I need strength which only you can give me Prabhupada. I am sure I now have no desires except for serving you in your mission. Let me put aside my ego, hate and any other anarthas, come out of them permanently and eternally reside at your lotus feet, taking your orders and serving you. This is the only goal I have. I see many devotees speak greatly and offer very beautiful offerings to you. Their devotional service to the Lord is perfect and their ecstasy is beautiful. I do not have a pinch of that love, neither towards you nor towards the lord.

But this is what I always aspire for. As I stated Prabhupada, my eyes fill with tears, although I am stone hearted and cannot even cry for the separation from you, these tears indicate the fact that I have no one other than you and guru Maharaj, Prabhupada. Serving you is the only aim of my life.

What would have happened, how would I lead my life without you, who would have given me the holy name, who would have shown me the path to my guru Maharaj, who would have taken such difficulty to give us this literature, this science and the holy dhams. I am a fallen soul. You kindly lifted me up.

I had no qualifications, I am a miscreant, you accepted me and gave me ISKCON. For all the forgetfulness I have, for all the mistakes I make, for all those times when I neglected your rules, please excuse this fallen soul.

Please bless me Prabhupada, that I do not forget you even for a moment. Being able to remember you is the only solution to be able to remember Radha Madanmohan. I just want to be a dedicated grandson to you, my dear grandfather, and only you can help me reach my spiritual father, my Gurudev.

I cannot think of anything else without you and I eternally take shelter of your lotus feet in my heart with tears of love and separation in my eyes. A fallen and Miscreant Soul Aspiring to be your eternal servant Aspiring to be a dog at your lotus feet.

Mahidhar

Dear srila prabhupada

Accept my humble obeisances .

You are saviour of fallen soul like me. Always gets thought where are you came from ? are you from spiritual world or is it your last birth on earth to go back home back to god head. You went America for spreading krishna consciousness in old age that shows your determination and unshakable faith in lord. It is a act which gives goosebumps. This question always arises after reaching USA how you struggled gives tears in eyes. You faced interviews by many scientists, Christian/Muslim crusades/scholars/western media but you never felt tired in answering or you never failed in answering them you answered with utmost patience quoting slokas from scriptures they got satisfied and many became your disciples. Always gets a question what gave you motivation or energy to roam around the world for establishing 108 temples and spreading krishna consciousness without any compromises in standards. In your lectures many times you used rascals to those doesn't believe in god this shows your bravery . You explained all living entities are sacred souls each one part and parcel of god. You are krishna's bonafied representative. I always feel happy to come and feel fortunate for iskcon hyderabad which was established by you personally . I feel like it is directly established by bona-fide god representative then I feel unexplainable happiness. As this was established by god representative so who ever comes here are surely in God's notice i feel.

To be understood your wisdom, pure devotion, setting standards to start iskcon are a higher level of awareness or spiritual insight is needed. Such a greatest qualities you have. After hearing about you i feel like a soul with unshakable faith can do marvelous in bhakthi, because entire world chanting Hare krishna mahamantra, every hour book distribution, every hour Mangala harathi , every hour sacred prasadam distribution, every hour a lecture etc.. happening somewhere or the other in the world. This really conveys message a true devotee can do such great things.

Dear prabhupada always keep us in krishna consciousness and inspire , guide us with invisible force , purify all souls make us eligible to go back home back to god head. Make me such a soul that this will be my last birth in the material world and reach lords abode.

Remove all challenges if any of GBC, ISKCONS, of your direct disciples, of all devotees of past, present and future . O saviour of fallen souls who truly seeks god you are boon to this world bless me , my parents, brothers, sister in laws, sons and daughter, grand parents and all devotees. Your eternal servant

A fallen soul Kamalakar patlolla..

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

I am very fortunate to get your association through your disciples.

Before coming into Krishna consciousness my life is complete material and don't know what bhakti means to me.

It's because of your disciples who follow your teachings and guide us as it is and transform our lives and get close to Krishna.

We are so blessed to have association with the devotees every week in the temple and hearing the past times of the Lord taking prasadam together with pure love and affection, this is all because of you spreading Krishna consciousness all over the world upon the instructions of your spiritual master.

Thank you once again for showering your mercy upon us.

Please bless us to continue in this path till our last breath of our life and serve vaishnavas, Guru and Krishna.

Thanks and Regards

Santhosh

Hare Krishna Prabhupad,

PAMHO on your lotus feet.

Your continued efforts and mercy gave us ISKCON. For me as a fallen soul gave this platform with wonderful association, guidance, support and giving clear path to do bhakti and helping me to purify myself and service to Lord and Vaishnavas by following Guru acharyas and Krishna instructions.

My heartfelt Gratitude and Grateful to you for everything. After coming to ISKCON only I know what real happiness is and absolute truth and what as a human being is our primary responsibility.

Thanks you so much Srila Prabhupada for everything.

Dear Srila Prabhupada

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your divine lotus feet.

Srila Prabhupada you have been very merciful on all of us. Because of your compassion that we are able to know that the difference between Grahasta and Grahmedi and we are able to know that how to do devotional services along with family and how to engage ourselves in the service of the Lord with our material duties.

Srila Prabhupada because of your mercy we are able to hear glorification of life of great vaishnavas and goswamis and I am very grateful for them to show me the path of devotional service.

Srila Prabhupada because of your mercy we are so fortunate that we are having guidance of HG Madankumar prabhuji because of prabhuji we are stick to the path of this devotional service and this year we went to Puri along with family and we have wonderful Darshan of Sri Sri Jagannathji, Baladevi, Subhdra mai and Sudarshan.

Srila Prabhupada on this special day I beg your mercy and blessings so that I can serve better way to Hari, Guru, Vaishnav and This mission and also I beg you Srila Prabhupada to give me intelligence and strength to follow the instructions of my Shiksha Guru HG Madankumar prabhuji and to remove my anarthas.

Thank you so much Srila Prabhupada for all.

Your humble servant

Subodh.

Our dear master ,
Please accept my humble obsequies onto your lotus feet
I like to thank you for giving the timeless gift of Holy names of Lord Hari , for you never thought of any difficulties which onto you because you just saw the mission and vision of your spiritual master .
Prabhupada , I just saw that prahlad maharaj prayers exactly matches your intention in preaching to the condition souls , he was ready to take many difficulties make all devotees and he prayed just wanted to serve his spiritual master who enlightened his Krishna consciousness same spirit is with you .
For the most fallen condition souls you given the wisdom and mercy through your books and your journey, many persons who heart is hard stone like me have become soften by reading your beautiful pastime in preaching the message of Lord Chaitanya and orders of your spiritual master , and your faith in the holy name of lord have attracted so many souls to Krishna.
The most fallen , exploitative persons have become humble in your association.
Whenever I get lost into the material concept of life your books the one after reading my heart jumps into ecstasy, but I pray you that it always be in that position by always reading the most transcendental books of devotion about lord Radhakrishna
I still think without you this world would be in great trouble of war and terrible across the world .
But you have given the timeless wisdom by which still the world is laying on your mercy through Guru parampara
I thank you Prabhupada, without you and your teachings this my life would be just like a slave of maya, and also for giving the chance to chant and glorify lord Hari
Your servant
Karthik

In the arid wilderness
Of Maya's desolate desert
I stood like a dying tree
Useless and withered

The hot winds of misery
Anger, greed and passion
Left me hopeless and unhappy
Where would I find salvation

Then like the advent of monsoon
With the breeze of Harinam sankirtan
You came like the cooling rain
With the precious gift of Lord Chaitanya

Showering your boundless mercy
You sustained and nourished us
And in place of the wilderness
A spiritual garden blossomed

Lowly and fallen tho' I am
I seek only one boon from thee

Srila Prabhupada, have pity on this soul
Let me roll in the dust of Your Lotus Feet

Vyasa puja offerings to Srila Prabhupada (2025)

Dear Srila Prabhupada
Please accept my humble obeisances unto your divine lotus feet.

Srila Prabhupada you have been very merciful on all of us. Because of your mercy I know the difference between spiritual world and material world. Due to your mercy we able to know that how to manage grahastha life by keeping Krishna as center point.

Srila Prabhupada because of your mercy I am able to hear glorification of life of great goswamis.

Srila Prabhupada because of your mercy we are so fortunate that we are having guidance of HG Madankumar prabhuji because of prabhuji and mataji I am able to chanting 8 rounds. This year we went to Puri along with my family and we have wonderful Darshan of Sri Sri Jagannathji, Baladevji, Subhdra mai and Sudarshan. First time I got 5 days association of great devotees and I learnt vaishnava etiquettes , I heard powerful kirtan and lectures.

Srila Prabhupada on this special day I beg your mercy and blessings so that I can chant more rounds and serve Vaishnavas and also I beg you Srila Prabhupada to give me intelligence and strength to follow the instructions of my Shiksha Guru HG Madankumar prabhuji and to remove my anarthas.

Thank you so much Srila Prabhupada for all.

Your humble servant

Shreya.

Hare Krishna prabhuji,

I came in contact with Krishna consciousness in my first year of IIT. I liked it but wasn't able to continue but after nearly years after 10 years . I have started listening to your lectures. I felt very calm and liked the lectures. I felt explanation was simple and clear. I felt like listening again and again to your lectures.

I feel difference between first time and this time with Krishna consciousness is that listening to your lectures and reading your books.

Thank you prabhuji for providing divine guidance and knowledge and helping me realize the goal of life.

Hare Krishna Hare Krishna

Please Accept My Humble Obecenses

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

I'm unrepayable grateful to you.

My life was before your Krishna Consciousness Movement and After Krishna Consciousness Movement totally different, You shown a path of Highest goal of Jiva(part and parcel of Lord Krishna), Which can't attain without the mercy of the Pure Devotees of the Lord,

But by your grace and mercy, whole world is spread by your devotees, in very less time, your Devotees will be in every corner of the world spreading the message of Sri Krishna Chaitanya Mahaprabhu

With the glance of your devotees, sudra like are becoming Devotees

I'm extremely seeking your blessings and mercy, Srila Prabhupada, please be merciful upon me

Thank you
Your Significant Servant

All glories to Śrīla Prabhupāda. All glories to Śrī Guru and Gaurāṅga.
nama om viṣṇu-pādāya kṛṣṇa-preṣṭhāya bhū-tale śrīmate bhaktivedānta-svāminn iti nāmine namas te sārasvate deve gaura-vāṇī-pracāriṇe nirviśeṣa-sūnyavādi-pāścātya-deśa-tāriṇe

It is my great fortune to have Śrīla Prabhupāda as eternal master, ever well-wisher, spiritual guide, and life and soul.

From eternity we have fallen into this ditch of materialistic existence, and even after undergoing billions and billions of repeated births and deaths in many, many species, we remained averse to the Lord. But when Śrīla Prabhupāda appears in the material world to shower his causeless mercy on the conditioned souls like us, only then we have the most fortunate opportunity to turn to Kṛṣṇa.

Śrīla Prabhupāda is so unique that His Divine Grace built the Kṛṣṇa consciousness movement so that everyone who comes to this movement finds somewhere to fit in. Śrīla Prabhupāda arranged so many kinds of sevā paraphernalia for everyone. This is no ordinary thing. If we think in a broad sense, then we can get the gravity of every arrangement His Divine Grace made for us. Before Śrīla Prabhupāda came, the Hare Kṛṣṇa mahā-mantra was already in the world, as was Śrīmad Bhagavad-gītā and Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, but no one was able to grasp their essence. When His Divine Grace appeared and started distributing them, their true nature was revealed. His Divine Grace has practically given us everything through which we can perfect our lives and also save the lives of others.

I offer my humble obeisances at the lotus feet of Śrīla Prabhupāda and beg for His Divine Grace's causeless mercy to give me pure intelligence and pure desire to lead a Kṛṣṇa conscious life. Hare Kṛṣṇa.

Please (Srila prabhupada) Guru Maharaj

Please accept my humble obsequies Srila prabhupada
All glories to your diving grace.

It is because of you we have access to liberation.

It is because of you we are chanting hare Krishnamantra

It is because of you we got the opportunity to serve their lordships Sri N'itai Guahanga

It is because of you we are getting and tasting Krishna Prasadam

It is because of you we could be able to do devotional service

It is because of you lakhs of people are getting Krishna Prasadam daily

From B.G-4.34 - "Just try to learn the truth by approaching a spiritual master. Enquire from him submissively & render service unto him. The self realized souls can impart knowledge unto you because they have seen the truth."

I request and beg you to kindly give me your blessings & causeless mercy to a sinful person like me for having and getting a guru like you in my life as soon as possible & always be in Krishna consciousness

I am very thankful for giving me a chance to utilise my human form of life perfectly through your transcendental books, Association of devotees, longhearing chanting of holy names, temples, Ashrams, etc for making a rapid progress in spiritual life.

My life has been transferred from an atheist to becoming at least your servant by your merciful glance upon this poor-conditioned soul.

It is because of you, I got to know about the higher taste - Krishna Prema which is not material but completely spiritual.

I beg you to give me spiritual strength to do more chanting, book reading, devotional service & deep love for Sri Radha - Nityasundara.

Thank you Shila Prabhupada for giving us this opportunity to write an offering.

Yours Sincerely,

SKLON VILAYAWADA

Dear Beloved Spiritual Grandfather,

nama om vishnu-padaya krishna-preshthaya bhu-tale
srimate bhaktivedanta-svamin iti namine

I offer my respectful obeisances unto His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada, who is very dear to Lord Krishna on this earth, having taken shelter at His lotus feet.

namas te sarasvate deve gaura-vani-pracharine nirvishesha-shunyavadi-pashchatya-desha-tarine

Our respectful obeisances are unto you, O spiritual master, servant of Sarasvati Gosvami. You are kindly preaching the message of Lord Chaitanya deva and delivering the Western countries, which are filled with impersonalism and voidism.

Although I have no qualification to speak about your unlimited glories, I feel very blessed to offer a few humble words on this special day of your Vyasa Puja.

It is only because of you that the whole world now knows about the Hare Krishna mantra and the message of the Bhagavad-gītā. You have written so many books, given so many lectures on Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, Bhagavad-gītā, and many other scriptures—more than any other Vaiṣṇava in recent times. This could only be possible because you were sent by the Lord for this special mission.

What you have done is beyond words. We feel your presence every day in your books and in your instructions, which continue to guide us like a light in the dark.

The greatest gift you have given us is Krishna prema—love for Krishna. You have taught us how to love Krishna, how to serve the spiritual master, and why following the guru is so important in our spiritual life.

Even in your old age, you took the order of your spiritual master seriously and traveled across the world, facing so many difficulties, just to help people like me who were lost.

On this sacred day, I bow down at your lotus feet and pray for your causeless mercy. Please bless me, and all the fallen souls like me, so that we can continue to follow your instructions and remain strong in this path of Krishna consciousness.

Thank you, Śrīla Prabhupāda, from the bottom of my heart.

All glories to you Śrīla Prabhupād!!.

Your GrandChild,

Murali Krishna Dasa

Dear Srila Prabhupad,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

After gaining courage, I am attempting to write this humble offering on your vyas puja.

It's no doubt that only and only because of your mercy that I have such a beautiful and clean life. Since childhood I have always been inquisitive to know about the life, God, suffering etc., I thought in this life, I can never know about these things, thought that I need to have a brahmana birth. Fortunately, your mercy made this human life meaningful without which this life would have been wasted like any other cats and dogs. I cannot thank enough for the fortune you have given me (although not qualified), so I thought I shall surrender to your lotus feet by surrendering to your beloved grandeur mission by dedicating my life. But little did I realize that I only had all the bad qualities, unlimited intensity of bad samskaras. Dear prabhupad, please bless me so that I can gain the strength to purify myself and execute your instructions through your Bonafide representatives (Varthaman acharya Brind). I don't want to spoil my life by whimsical decisions and crazy laziness, but engage in your service as dasa dasanu das but I am struggling to get that humility and dedication. To this extent whatever little good thing I performed was only through your mercy.

Dear prabhupad, your mercy is bountiful in my life through the Vani of His Holiness Radhanath swami Maharaj (Which is so relatable and inspiring) and His Grace Radheshyam Prabhuji (tirelessly training us through counsellors and classes). After receiving all this, I have a great fear that if I do not give my best to contribute something little back to you (KC Movement), it's a great misfortune that I have done to myself and there is no hope for me after receiving the rarest mercy unto the most unqualified soul like me in the world.

I beg at your lotus feet, that may I be engaged in your service with utmost humility, dedication, intelligence and love. Your blessings are the last and only hope left for me without which this soul shall go millions of lifetimes far from lotus feet of shri shri RADHA KRISHNA undoubtedly.

Next Year I am attempting to join bramhachari ashram, Please bless this adamant soul with the strength of consistent sadhana (Attachment to your Books lectures) and proper mood to serve the Vaishnavas. I am trying to preach on the order of my superiors, if you wish, you can bless me and the boys by which we can attain your lotus feet. A journey just taking tender, shaky steps and a long voyage to go with known conditionings internally and unknown obstacles externally. Only by your merciful glance shall this be successful.

Yours aspiring
Servant

Guptha.

Most Respected and dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Sree Guru and Gauranga and all glories to your divine grace.

Srila Prabhupada I am very grateful to you for the gift which you have given me and continuing for giving your mercy.

You gave me your transcendental literature, Your loving followers, Holynama, and the association of devotees.

By studying your literature I am getting inspiration to practice Krishna Consciousness and through your literature you are increasing my faith in your representative, my Spiritual Master. You are increasing my appreciation of the different personalities of Srimad Bhagavatam.

The culture which you have given us regularly hearing Srimad Bhagavatam and Bhagavad Gita from Spiritual Master the representative of Krishna , by regularly hearing from your pure representative I am understanding very little Krishnas protection and Krishnas mercy on me and my family members and how Krishna is maintaining my Krishna Consciousness. Through the hearing process your representative is giving me life in Krishna Consciousness and inthuisim to move forword. I am very dull and have all bad qualities but by the mercy of your followers I am continuing to practice Krishna Consciousness.

Srila Prabhupada on this most auspicious occasion of your appearance day I came to your lotus feet and begging for your mercy to have implicit faith in your representative and humble service attitude on my teacher and my Guru Maharaj and follow him without any doubt in this way to serve you and please You and Lord Krishna.

Srila Prabhupada now in Iskcon- Hyderabad temple situation is different good leader has left in these circumstances. I want to practice Krishna Consciousness seriously , I am seeking Your protection and your mercy and continue to serve you and Lord Krishna in the association of devotees. Please forgive me for my mistakes and offences which I have committed to you knowingly or unknowingly.

Thank you very much.

Pujya Guruji Dandavat Pranams,

By your blessings on this tiny innocent person , Your Devotees association in 1996 made me to chant 16 Malas of Hari nama Japa daily with devotion and chance to listen Sri Bhagavad Gita & Srimad Bhagavatam daily . Simultaneously I strictly followed 4 Regulative principles. I got Initiated by your grace in June 1998. My wife is a Devotee of Sri-Sampradaya and was initiated by Chinna Jeeyar Swamy.3 years before me. She is a good devotee and does Deity worship daily and helps me in doing Mangala-arati then Tulasi Puja and chanting Hare Krishna Japa daily. From September 2021 Brhat-Japa-Yajna with 20 Malas daily . Some Festivals 36 to 64 Malas . Very happy performance with Temple Sevas . Attending Mangala-arati/ , Guru-arati , Srungara Arati / Listening to Srimad Bhagavatam class . At home also we have Deity worship similar to Temple .My Son and Daughter are also chanting 16 Malas & worshipping Sri Gaura Nitai with Radha Krishna in their houses . They visit Temple and do seva as per Senior Devotees Instructions This is all due to Your Blessings upon this tiny devotee..

With Dandavat-pranams .

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

All glories to you.

I bow down at your lotus feet.

Thank you Prabhupada for your causeless mercy that you have bestow on me by giving this Krishna Conscious community in the form of ISKCON movement.

Because of your mercy, Srila prabhupada we got the chance to understand the true meaning of our scriptures Bhagavad Gita, Srimad Bhagavatam and various other scriptures you have written. Because of your mercy we are able chant Krishna's name which is Krishna Himself.

Your transcendental books are the basis of this movement and is transforming the entire world. Your hard work for writing books in a very short span of time always give encouragement to read your books whenever I am feeling lack of interest.

On this auspicious day of your Vyas Puja, I beg for your mercy and blessings, so that I could become an insignificant servant of all the vaishnavas, the way it pleases them the most.

Always dependent upon you and your disciples' mercy and blessings to be in association with devotees throughout. Aspiring to be your servant of your servant,

Nitin Kumar Pathak

My dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to you.

Prabhupada, thank you for coming to this world just to take souls like us back home, back to Godhead. If you had not come, we would not even know who Krishna is, what liberation is, or what our life's real purpose is.

You spread the transcendental teachings of Krishna and carried forward the mission of Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu, even while facing unimaginable challenges. Without you, we might never have even heard of Caitanya Mahaprabhu's mercy.

Through your divine instructions and by establishing the International Society for Krishna Consciousness, you have made us understand and realize the ultimate goal of life, Krishna-bhakti and sadhu-sanga.

Prabhupada, you have made this society so strong that anyone who comes into Krishna Consciousness, or takes up this process, never wants to leave. People are drawn to it and deeply admire how devotees not only love and serve Krishna but also care for and serve each other.

I have heard that people come to Krishna Consciousness seeking solace, and you have indeed made this movement a perfect shelter for that purpose. You have helped us realize our eternal relationship with the Supreme Lord.

Your mission is still alive today only because of your transcendental books, your lectures, the temples you gave your heart and soul to build, and your sincere disciples who carry your mood.

I always approach you first, before Krishna, because sometimes I am unsure whether He hears me but you, Prabhupada, I feel you always hear me and reciprocate.

I beg for your mercy, Prabhupada. Please give me the strength and intelligence to do bhakti. Help me realize my mistakes, avoid repeating them, and develop humility and compassion toward every living being. Please help me overcome false ego, anger, pride, and lust. Let me never give up Krishna Consciousness. Grant me faith and trust in you and in Krishna. Let me always remember you and the Lord, and let me be constantly engaged in Your and His service.

Prabhupada, I simply desire to become your humble servant and a soldier in your mission.

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

I offer my most respectful obeisances unto your lotus feet.

Thank you for your boundless, causeless mercy. I am forever grateful for your guidance and blessings.

Before coming to your shelter, I did not know the importance of the holy name. I was wandering aimlessly, without a goal, unaware of the true purpose of life.

Prabhupada, I now understand that the holy name is my greatest treasure, and this understanding is only by your mercy. I beg you, dear Prabhupada, to bless me so that I may develop true humility, free from pride and false ego.

You have given me the light of Krishna Consciousness, and it now shines within my heart, guiding my every step.

O it is my heartfelt gratitude to greatest Guru trailer Prabhas srila prabhupad that because of him here even normal person can understand and join ISKCON and get the blessings of Shri Radha Krishna and attend moksha and no everything in detail and get attached to Krishna in such a way that we can feel everywhere it is because of him that only other religion but in the whole world assembly of Vaishnav pray and and who do friendship and get blessings of almighty the one and only Shri Krishna we are very happy and very grateful and very much blessed to be joined with ISKCON international family for Krishna which is made by Guru srila prabhupad

With his blessings we also chant the name of Shri Krishna hare Krishna hare Krishna Krishna hare hare Ram hare Ram Ram hare hare and receive the blessings of lord Krishna with this Maha Mantra given by him thank you guruji as because of good Guru only we can attend the almighty the Krishna so thank you very much for me and all of us in this world whoever believes in Krishna with your blessing we will be able to achieve him thanks hare Krishna

From MYTHRAYERI and utsavi Hara krishna

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

I am an insignificant and unqualified soul, yet I am proud to be a part of your glorious mission. Nothing in this material world can ever repay you except by glorifying you and spreading your teachings. Kindly accept this offering from my heart, Srila Prabhupada.

You have shown that purity is the real force. You have preached, inspired, and transformed the lives of so many Westerners with sound and convincing philosophy, and you have established countless temples all over the world in such a short time. This reveals your extraordinary purity and how dear you are to Lord Krishna.

By your mercy, I began chanting 16 rounds daily on 26 October 2024. I am so happy to have come to Krishna consciousness. I have given up eating non-vegetarian food, and I am sincerely trying to give up onion and garlic as well. Please bless me to become a pure devotee of Lord Sri Krishna, and to continue chanting my 16 rounds, reading the Bhagavad-gita, Krishna's pastimes, and your books with proper understanding, while engaging in devotional service.

I am in the initial stage of my spiritual life and remain always dependent on your mercy and the mercy of your disciples. I pray to remain in the association of devotees throughout my life.

Your servant's servant,

Naresh Morri

My dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble and respectful obeisances to the dust of your lotus feet. These dust particles are so glorious that they can purify the rivers of all the sins that people come and deposit. I remember one of your pastimes in the Kumbha Mela where one of your guests had, upon seeing your lotus feet said that this is the sangam that we need, and thus washed your lotus feet with the sacred water from the sangam, and poured the caranamrta back into the sangam.

Today is a day to remember all your glorious journey, the contributions, and the change you've brought about in this world. You are the best example of being comfortable with the uncomfortable. Starting with a couple of heart attacks, you circled the globe 14 times, opening 108 temples. Even if one spends his entire life writing, he will not be able to write as much as you did in the course of your pastimes.

This year, as you always say "Double it!", I tried doubling my book score in the marathon for your pleasure, and have distributed 272 books.. In my sadhana and services, I continue to take baby steps.

On this most blessed day, please shower your mercy upon me. I pray that in some future life I will be in your personal association rendering service to your lotus feet. May I venture out of my comfort zone like you in spreading your mission. May I get the taste to read your books. May I get the intelligence to understand your teachings as they are, and to present them as they are. May I always be in association of your sincere and serious followers. May I never offend them. May I make myself of some use to your mission, in this life, and in all the lives to come.

" Hare Krishna Hare Krishna , Krishna Krishna Hare Hare

Following the directions of Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Sarasvati, Prabhupad went to the West. He thought that, at that time Krishna consciousness was an emergency, and it could not wait for anyone.

Prabhupad during residing at Radha-Damodara temple worked on Srimad-Bhagavatam. The significance of the place is this was where great souls like the Goswamis - Rupa, Sanatana, Raghunatha and Jiva gathered, chanted, taken prasadam and discussed about Lord Krishna & Lord Chaitanya.

From magazines to Bhagavad Gita and Srimad Bhagavatam all were given to the world. He typed day and night under small lights to just enlightened people struck in this material world. He barely slept.

Having his faith in Krishna, at the age of 69 Prabhupad departed to the west. Though it ~~was~~^{seems} impossible to preach at West, when Krishna is on your side everything is possible. With Lord Krishna's mercy, Prabhupad's mission of Krishna consciousness is reaching every part of world.

I pray to the Lord to shower his blessings and let everyone have taste of Krishna bhakti.

chant and Be Happy ☺

My Gurudev prabhupad when i read your lilamrita book and when i get to hear about you from lectures of your disciples, it is such an inspiring and touching to heart that you have gone from so many critical situations for the benefit of all the jivas.
Your struggles for printing, translating and selling of books in such an old age where other will be enjoying ^{much} their retirement is very difficult, with not financial support, you was to walk such long distance so that you can say money and use for printing the books.
But jiva like me such fallen, still have no intense desire to read your books and follow the path which you have shown to the whole world. The discomforts you had while travelling in jala-duta, travelling alone in U.S, staying with the strangers who were doing all the non-sense things, still your faith and surrender mood for your guru is inconceivable.

Galaxy A35 5G

When you travelling in jala-duta, you suffered with sea sickness and two heart attacks, still you never deviated from your path. You were very firm to make true, the words of your Guru. The song who have written in jala-duta that means that you are a puppet in the hands of Krishna and however he want to make you dance who were always ready, that shows your complete surrederance on your guru and Krishna.

You have gone through so many unpleasant situations, just to deliver us from the clutches of maya.

I pray and beg at your lotus feet, please bless me with the faith and surrender mood you have for your Guru and Krishna and i always serve this ISKCON vaishnav family which you have given me.

— Thank you —

Dear Srila Prabhupada, Namo om̐ viṣṇu-pādāya kṛṣṇa-preṣṭhāya bhū-tale Śrimate bhaktivedānta-svāmin iti nāmine Namas te sārāsvate deve gaura-vāṇī-pracāriṇe Nirviṣeṣa-sūnyavādi-pāścātya-deśa-tāriṇe Actually, with my tongue I am not qualified to glorify the divine qualities of a nitya-siddha Vaiṣṇava like Your Divine Grace. But my heart and soul become purified whenever I attempt to speak or write about the pure Vaiṣṇavas. It is hard to imagine what my life would be without you. You are the Founder-Ācārya of ISKCON, and by pleasing you, it is like watering the root—through you, our service, affection, and devotion reach all the previous ācāryas and Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Madana-Mohana. I am aware that I belong to the last generation who can still personally associate with those pure souls who had the fortune of directly associating with you. ISKCON has now been established for over 50 years, and I often think how late I have come. Whenever I see your videos, hear your lectures, or look upon your picture, I feel the generation before me was so fortunate. Still, I realize that I am also blessed, because I can associate with your disciples—those who directly served you and received your instructions. For whoever I am today, I am grateful to you, to your disciples, and to all your followers. Thank you, Srila Prabhupada, for everything you have done for me—for all the sacrifices you made just to help us realize our real identity and reconnect us with Krishna. I only hope this humble offering may bring you some small pleasure. This is my insignificant attempt to serve you, Srila Prabhupada.

Your insignificant servant,

Aditya

An Offering to Śrīla Prabhupāda on His Divine Appearance Day

Śrī Śrī Rādhā Dāmodarau Jayataḥ

Śrī Śrī Guru Gaurā ṇ gau Jayataḥ Dear Śrīla Prabhupāda,

On this most auspicious day of your divine appearance, I offer my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to you, who appeared in this world solely to give shelter to the wandering souls lost in the darkness of Kali-yuga. You are the eternal captain of the ship of bhakti, guiding us safely across the ocean of material existence. Today, devotees all over the world rejoice, remembering your unmatched compassion and tireless labor in fulfilling Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu's mission. But I stand before you painfully aware of my own disqualification. I am devoid of devotion, poor in qualities, and lacking in any real service attitude. My mind remains restless, my heart immature, and my willpower weak. I carry the disease of pride, thinking myself a devotee while failing to live up to even the smallest standards you have set. My Present Condition: It has been 4–5 months since I last visited Śrī Śrī Rādhā Madanmohan Temple here in Hyderabad. My CA exams are near, and during this period I have faced challenges that revealed how little control I truly have. Although I knew a bit of these truths philosophically, experiencing them has been sort of humbling. During this time, I have allowed my chanting to weaken—first from four rounds to one, then sometimes to none at all. Those days without the holy name have been unbearable; without Kṛṣṇa's name, I have realized that my mind becomes like a powerful enemy, disturbing my peace and balance. Fear of failure, anxiety about results, and worry over others' opinions agitate me daily. Though I had taken a vow to chant four rounds from last Ekādaśī, my determination has been weak. I confess, Śrīla Prabhupāda, that I have used my studies as an excuse to neglect even the little bhajana I was doing. And yet, Kṛṣṇa has been merciful — using His energy, Māyā, to whip me with anxiety and panic, reminding me of my dependence on Him. My Offering: Śrīla Prabhupāda, you gave everything—your comfort, your health, your very life—to spread the holy name of Kṛṣṇa. At an age when most would retire, you crossed the ocean, endured great hardship, and translated the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam in the silent midnight hours at Rādhā-Dāmodara Mandir, all for the sake of uplifting the spiritually blind. You trained disciples who not only preach your teachings but live them, building a foundation of bhakti across the world. I have been in this movement for almost three years now, yet I hardly see any real progress in myself. I am failing in bhajana, in seva, in sādhu-saṅga, and in valuing the association of devotees. I am surrounded by mercy yet squander it, and worst of all, I feel little true grief (in the heart) over this loss. Still, I take hope knowing you are patita-pāvana—the savior of the most fallen. Just as a beggar in a pitiful condition may still receive alms from a kind-hearted passerby, I pray for that same kindness from you. Please awaken me from this deep sleep of ignorance, cleanse my heart, and engage me wholeheartedly in the service of your dear disciples and grand-disciples. My Prayer on Your Appearance Day: While writing this offering, these two verses come to my mind: • brahmāṇḍa bhramite kona bhāgyavān jīva | guru-kṛṣṇa-prasāde pāya bhakti-latā-bīja || • harau ruṣṭe gurus trātā gurau ruṣṭe na kaścana | tasmāt sarva-prayatnena gurum eva prasādayet || These verses remind me that my only hope is your mercy. By your compassion, I pray for eagerness to chant, taste for hearing, and determination to honour my promises to Kṛṣṇa, to you, and to myself. Bless me with strong faith, humility, and an unshakable service attitude at the feet of Śrī Guru, Gaurāṅga, and the Vaiṣṇavas. On this sacred day, I offer myself again at your lotus feet. Whatever little worth I may have, I surrender to you. Please make me your instrument and guide me to live only for your service.

Your insignificant servant,

Abinash

Dear Most Srila Prabhupad,

please accept my prostrated obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to you!! It's your 129th Appearance Day, and I know that you are aware that I'm short of words and confused what to write as no words can express what you have done not only for me but for the entire world. Your mercy knows no boundaries, nationality, caste, creed, race, gender, and continues to give shelter to millions. Even essay of a million words would not suffice to express our gratitude for your compassion and the benediction which you have bestowed upon mankind. I feel your presence daily, in your books, recorded tapes, while serving your deity, at all the temples you have built. I feel your compassion daily when I hear tapes of your disciples and your grand disciples who are your representatives and have been sent very mercifully to a conditioned soul like me. I can feel that you are preaching in every town and village through devotees who are distributing your books on streets, stations, airports and every nook and corner. I feel the power of your devotion when I hear your melodious kirtans, Hari Katha and old video clips of you travelling, performing aartis and delivering lectures. Just like you say that Krishna has given everything perfectly, similarly there is nothing undone by you, you have already given us everything. Your ISKCON society which comprises of millions of devotees, palatial temples, farm communities continues to expand with every setting sun and I feel nothing but proud and extremely fortunate to be a part of this wonderful society, it's a home which you have built where the entire world can stay. Before coming to Krishna Consciousness I was aimlessly wondering in this sansara, you not only gave me a purpose but all means to fulfill it. I am indebted to you, to repay this debt is not possible, but, I am grateful to you for the life you have given me and as an offering to you, I have decided to dedicate my life in your service by joining your movement and serving in best of my capacity. In guidance of your brilliant disciples and grand disciples I am leaning and growing under your shelter. I request you to please make me an instrument in your hands so that I can serve your mission with dedication and enthusiasm. Ohe Vaishnav Thakur, Dayara Sagar Aye Dase Karuna Kori... Aami toh Kangal Krishna Krishna Boli Dhayi Tava Pache Pache... Aspiring to be your puppet, forever at your disposal.

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All glories to Your Divine Grace. All glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga. On this most auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja, I bow down in gratitude for the inconceivable mercy you have showered upon the entire world. You are the perfect representative of Sri Vyasadeva, carrying the transcendental sound vibration of Lord Sri Krishna's message without adulteration to every corner of the globe. Before your arrival in the West, I was wandering in ignorance, thinking that material pleasures and achievements would satisfy the heart. But by your mercy, the sound of the holy name and the wisdom of Bhagavad-gita and Srimad-Bhagavatam entered my life. Your books are not just ink on paper — they are your personal presence, guiding me like a lamp in the darkness. Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam (11.17.27) says: ācāryaṁ mām vijānīyān navamanyeta karhicit na martya-buddhyāsūyeta sarva-deva-mayo guruḥ "One should know the ācārya to be as good as Myself and never disrespect him in any way. One should not envy him, thinking him an ordinary man, for he is the representative of all the demigods." You have taught us that to serve the spiritual master is to serve Krishna directly. I have seen in my own life that when I try to serve your mission — whether by chanting, distributing your books, or assisting devotees — I feel a deep joy that material success could never offer. Even in my struggles, your example of tireless service inspires me to never give up. I am still far from being the servant you deserve, but I pray that you will continue to guide me and give me the determination to follow your instructions. Please bless me with the strength to chant attentively, to serve without selfish motive, and to become an instrument in your hands to spread the holy name. Thank you, Srila Prabhupada, for rescuing me from the ocean of birth and death and placing me on the path back to Godhead. On this Vyasa Puja, I once again place my head at your lotus feet and pray that I may never leave your shelter for even a moment.

Your aspiring servant, Bhavya

My humble obeisance to HDG Srila Prabhupada. All glories to him and I offer my gratitude to him on the occasion of Vyas Pooja. I offer my humble obeisances unto your divine lotus feet. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve you and the Krishna Consciousness movement. I offer my prayers, my service, my heart unto you, HDG Srila Prabhupada, with the hope that it may be pleasing to you and Lord Krishna. Please accept my humble offering and guide me on my spiritual journey. I always seek your guiding principles and teachings in my path of Devotional service as you sparkled the light of pure knowledge in lowest peoples (hippies) and taken them to Krishna Consciousness and made their life successful. I have collected some of points from your immense teachings - - The importance of chanting the holy name of Krishna - The divine power of the holy name and its non-difference from God Himself - The significance of prasadam and its role in cultivating a Krishna-conscious mind - The need to stay connected with the Supreme Personality of Godhead for success in life. I always remember the Quote - हरि सेबड़ा हरि का नाम। My prayer to Srila Prabhupada for sincere and heartfelt, seeking inspiration, intelligence, determination, and strength to follow your teachings and please Krishna. Your humility and eagerness to serve are truly admirable. All glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Hare Kṛṣṇa! Oh Srila Prabhupad by your mercy in this age of Kali yuga where person like me drowning in maya, your books and teaching helping millions of people to begin spiritual life. You gave us temples, deities, holy name, books, devotees and the most important your own dedicated, exemplary disciples. Still your physical absence is there, but you instructed us that you are always with us.

Saint Kabir said,

Vyasa Puja Offering to His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada THE 129TH APPEARANCE DAY OF SRILA PRABHUPADA, AUGUST 17TH 2025 (SUNDAY) Hare Krishna Srila Prabhupada, Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. "All glories to your tireless service to Sri Krishna Chaitanya Mahaprabhu and all the fallen souls of this world." Of all my relationships in this world and spiritual life, none is deeper than the one I feel with you. I say this with trembling honesty, "I love you, Srila Prab- hupada, more than Krishna Himself." It may sound bold, but it is true. Without you, I would have never even heard Krishna's name. Without your books, your sacrifices, your voice, your purports, I would have no direction in this life. You are my only connection to the spiritual world. Despite hearing and even intellectually understanding the glories of the Hare Krishna maha-mantra, I find no taste, no interest, and no steady attach- ment to chanting. This is my greatest challenge and sorrow — that the most essential limb of bhakti, the very lifeline of spiritual progress, remains a struggle for me. Yet I continue to chant, somehow, only because you have asked me to. This is my only strength. Srila Prabhupada, I have no qualifications. I have no purity. But I have your books and your society. Please bless me with just a drop of the love you had for the Holy Name. I have read your words, I have seen your tears while chanting, I have heard recordings of your humble voice calling out to Krishna with full surren- der. Please, Srila Prabhupada, give me just a spark of that flame. Let me serve your mission. Let me please you somehow. Let me never leave your shelter. Thank you for everything. You are my eternal master, guide, and well-wisher. Please keep me at your lotus feet, birth after birth.

Jagatguru Srila Prabhupada Maharaj ki Jayy,

I m no one to glorify such a great Vaishnava who has dedicated his life and soul in the mission of spreading Krishna Consciousness movement,but still by his mercy i try to glorify a little bit...

Spiritual master ,why you are very compassionate towards this stupid rascal who is not even eligible to do any sort of service in return for you,but still you gave me the shelter of ISKCON and devotee association...

Just like no one can count the transcendental qualities of Supreme Personality of Godhead like that no one can count the transcendental qualities of your causeless mercy also..

It's really inspiring how you tactfully handle all the challenges of life in your path by depending on Guru and Krishna's mercy

You have shown us the real engagement of this human life otherwise we had wasted our life in mundane affairs,I have been ignorant through out my life and you have shown us the absolute path irrespective of our eligibility.

Keeping you at the centre of my life, each day I can feel how your causeless mercy flows unconditionally in the upkeep of my devotional service.In every activity of yours,You never fail to strengthen us,You are the reason for everything auspicious in my life from all angles of vision,the success of my life is to find my mission in your mission,It is because of your mercy we can be able to chant and hear the transcendental Holy name of the Lord,can able to read and understand the Vedic Scriptures as they are,can be able to do all devotional activities in the association of devotees,you tried to teach us everything that you learned from your spiritual master as it is,your instructions and teachings are so practical and relevant in every situation.

Whenever I get any question or in any difficulties if I pray and approach your lotus feet, you will surely respond....

On this most auspicious day in my life I beg at your lotus feet that I should accept only those things which pleases you and reject those things which displeases you,please forgive me for all kinds of offenses I committed knowingly or unknowingly at your lotus feet🙏🏻plz bless me to increase my taste towards your lotus feet and i should never leave the shelter of your lotus feet in any bewildering situation or in any of my life🙏🏻

All glories to you,your glories never ends ..Yours insignificant servant,

Sama Soujanya,

Hare Krishna Srila Prabhupada, Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to you.

This year marks my second Vyas Puja offering to you, Srila Prabhupada, and I wish to express the realizations and experiences I have had over the past year. This year, I have been greatly disturbed by the influence of māyā, and my struggle to remain steady in bhakti has been intense. Yet, it is your lectures and your books that have been my lifeline, constantly saving me. Through your vani, you personally give me your association—whether through your words, your writings, or the company of your dedicated followers. By your grace, I am still holding on to the boat of bhakti amidst these turbulent waves. I wish to glorify how deeply you have transformed my life simply through your presence in it. You have written books and delivered lectures to firmly convince us of the urgency and necessity of spiritual life—teaching us how to fight against māyā and remain determined during difficult times. Yet, I feel an emptiness within, knowing that I have not been able to serve you practically as much as I desire. I feel I am constantly receiving from you, but giving back so little. My heart longs to distribute your books far and wide, to please you through my activities, and to assist in your preaching mission. Your compassion is endless, Srila Prabhupada. You endured unimaginable hardships to give a fallen soul like me a chance to practice Krishna consciousness and understand Krishna. Who could be more merciful than you? You have made Krishna-bhakti so simple and accessible that I am filled with hope—hope that this supreme goal is within my reach. Through your vani, you continually encourage me, assuring me that I am close to the destination and only need to keep pushing forward. You are my greatest hope in life, Srila Prabhupada. Your fighting spirit and your unshakable optimism have begun to take root in my heart. My only aspiration is to become the servant of the servant of your servants, engaging in service that pleases you and continuing to walk the path you have laid before us—the home you have given the whole world, ISKCON. On this Vyas Puja, I bow my head to glorify you and beg for your mercy. Please show me the way to advance in bhakti and in pleasing you.

Your insignificant resident of ISKCON, Praneeth

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my respectful obeisances. All glories to your divine grace!

I came in touch with you first in 1997 in the form of your purports to Bhagavad Gita as it is. Your words then gave me a sense of absolute certitude that was extremely consoling to my heart in my early adulthood when I was trying to figure out the world.

Yet you also strongly challenged my paradigm of “God” by stating that He was a specific Person with a name, address, etc. I could accept everything you told me, except that “Krishna is God”. To be honest I did not like your strong presentation, it seemed to me quite audacious. However I was at the same time drawn strongly to your confidence, clarity and loving shelter.

Being influenced by my Christian schooling, for me God was a completely reliable friend and guide, but without a particular form or name. Your presentation of God as an Absolute Person and your radically personal presentation of Him made me quite uncomfortable. About twenty eight years have passed now and I’m still here. You have tolerated this impersonal being with your loving personal gestures, and you have been gradually destroying my several impersonal cataracts one by one, layer by layer. Thank you!

Now when I think back, I understand that the impersonal aspect in us actually gives us some cushioning and space to exist and enjoy “independently” from God, Krishna. But just like Krishna’s all attractive nature, I have been attracted to you despite my reservations towards some of your views (as described earlier). Thank you dear Prabhupada, for the magical spell that you cast upon me, that enamors me to stay transfixed under your shelter despite all odds.

I pray to you on this very auspicious day of your compassionate appearance that the shackles of my material attachments may loosen, and the blinding impersonalism in my heart may be removed so that I may relate to your teachings the way you mean to teach it to us and not through my own convoluted perceptions. Unless I am able to relate to your teachings in a personal way, and in effect to you and your followers in a personal way, how will I even receive these priceless teachings you are giving us? And how will I be able to share it with others in a loving personal way, the way it’s meant to be?

Begging to become your true follower,

Your aspiring servant, Anindita devi dasi

Hare Krishna Prabhupada,

All glories to you! Happy Vyasa Puja!

I heard about you for the first time when I was three or four years old, when my parents told me about you. Later, the temple president of ISKCON Abids (HG Vedanta Caitanya Prabhu) gave a series of classes on our previous acaryas. The last class I heard was about you, and I liked it very much.

I liked your determination to preach in the west, and the way you made friends by doing kirtan under a tree and allowing anybody to join and bring their own instruments to play in the kirtan. I liked what you said: "I made hippies to happies!"

Please bless me that I chant nicely and I pray that you take me back to Goloka.

Your servant,

Maruti Ramadasa

Hare krsna Prabhupada

PAMHO All glories to srila Prabhupada

All glories to guru and gauranga

Dear Prabhupada, I joined ISKCON Abids temple full-time on March 23rd. With utmost respect for your teachings, I have decided to distribute your books to as many people as possible. I chant 16 rounds daily and also recite prayers like Kunti Maharani, Bhishma Stuti, Narasimha Kavacha, Gajendra Moksha, Radha Kataksha, and Sachi Suta Ashtakam. Before chanting, I offer my respects to the Acaryas. Sometimes, due to certain reasons (seva-related), I am unable to perform my sadhana properly. I am still attached to material things and caught up in the web of Maya. I am still struggling with sense gratification. Despite these challenges, I have distributed around 400-500 of your books in the past four months and continue to read your books daily. I am aware that without your mercy, I wouldn't be able to control my senses. Regardless of what happens, I am determined to stay committed to your mission and face any challenges that Maya may throw my way. I humbly request your blessings to remain steadfast in your mission, to stay away from low desires, and to serve the guru and Vaishnavas with devotion. If I fail to achieve success in this life, I pray that you grant me another opportunity in the next life to spread your message effectively. My body is filled with lust, anger, attachment, hatred, pride, and envy, but I seek your strength to stay above these weaknesses in any situation. I aspire to always think about your mission, serve the Vaishnavas, and follow the guru's instructions.

Your aspiring servant,

Sagar.

Dear Srila Prabhupada, Jagat-Guru,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All glories to you, the eternal servant of Sri Sri Radha-Krishna.

All glories to your divine mission, which continues to transform the hearts of countless fallen souls like myself. Srila Prabhupada, I do not have the words to fully express my gratitude for the transformation you have brought into my life. In the midst of intense mental agony—when I was surrounded by pain, manipulation, verbal abuse, and insult—I felt lost and broken. The world around me had turned into chaos, and I saw no way out. But by your causeless mercy, I found the treasure of your ISKCON movement. Like a divine light piercing through the darkness, your teachings, your books, your devotees, and your presence lifted me from despair and reminded me of who I really am: an eternal servant of Krishna.

Through your blessings, I began to rise—from an animalistic life of suffering and illusion to a human life of purpose and then to a divine connection with the Supreme Lord. You have shown me the meaning of dignity, devotion, and divine love. Your movement gave me the shelter of Krishna—past times Krishna-prasadam, and the loving association of Vaishnavas. In every step, I feel your guiding hand. Srila Prabhupada, I pray to always serve you and Krishna with sincerity, humility, and increasing dedication. Please bless me with the strength to stay fixed in devotional service, to chant the holy names with a pure heart, and to always remember your instructions.

You have given me everything. You have given me life. You have given me Krishna.

I am forever indebted to you.

Your insignificant servant,

Shalini Krishna Hare Krishna.

I offer my humble and respectful obeisances to His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada. I fall at your lotus feet again and again. You are the dear servant of Lord Krishna and the most merciful representative of the parampara. Whatever little spiritual understanding I have today is only because of you. Srila Prabhupada, you are truly a miracle in the history of the world. At an age when most people retire, you travelled across the ocean with no money, no support, and only full faith in the holy name and the order of your spiritual master. You gave us Krishna in a way that we could understand. You translated the scriptures with such clarity and love. You built temples, trained disciples, and gave us a spiritual movement that changed the lives of millions. Your compassion, determination, purity, intelligence, and deep love for Krishna are impossible to describe fully. I first got to know about ISKCON when I was in 3rd standard. At that time, the All India Padayatra came to my village. I was very young, but I felt attracted to the deities, the kirtans, and the atmosphere. What amazed me most was Srila Prabhupada sitting on the chariot. I thought he was a real person! Later I came to know it was a deity of Srila Prabhupada, but the impact it left on my heart stayed. Years passed, and during my third year of degree college, I came to know that there was an ISKCON temple nearby. I started visiting the temple, and slowly began chanting and reading Srila Prabhupada's books — not regularly, but whenever I could. I also started hearing devotees glorify Srila Prabhupada. I attended Vyasa Puja last year at ISKCON Guntur and heard devotees speak about Prabhupada's life and mission. I also heard some stories from Prabhupada-lilamrita that touched my heart deeply. Even though I'm not steady in my practice, I feel that Srila Prabhupada is guiding me. Sometimes I struggle with chanting regularly or staying focused. I face distractions and personal challenges, but the moment I come in contact with Srila Prabhupada's words or devotees, I feel strength and inspiration returning. It's as if Srila Prabhupada never gives up on me, even when I give up on myself. I feel deep gratitude towards Srila Prabhupada. He gave me purpose and a path in life. Without him, I would still be lost in confusion and temporary pleasures. His books, his lectures, and his followers are a treasure for the whole world. I may not have met him physically, but I feel his presence through his teachings and his mission. He has transformed not just my life, but the lives of countless others. Thank you, Srila Prabhupada, for everything. Thank you for giving us Krishna. Thank you for building ISKCON and showing us how to live for Krishna. Thank you for being so merciful to fallen souls like me. I sincerely beg for your blessings. Please give me the strength to become sincere, to follow your instructions, to chant attentively, and to serve in your mission. Please don't let me forget you or Krishna. Please allow me to one day become a tiny, humble instrument in spreading your message.

Ys Saiteja

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All glories to Your Divine Grace.

I am writing this letter with a heart overflowing with gratitude. Although I am but an insignificant soul, your causeless mercy has touched my life in ways beyond measure. You came to this world solely to deliver us from the darkness of ignorance, and through your words, actions, and books, you have given us direct access to the eternal light of Krishna consciousness. Srila Prabhupada, you endured great hardships leaving the shelter of Sri Vrindavan Dham, boarding the Jaladuta at an advanced age, suffering illness and discomfort all so that fallen souls like me could receive the treasure of bhakti. Your compassion knows no bounds. Every verse, every purport, every instruction from your lotus lips is like a priceless jewel, filled with eternal wisdom and pure love for Krishna.

You have taught us that real happiness lies not in material gain but in serving the Supreme Lord and His devotees. You have shown by your personal example how to live simply, think deeply, and serve wholeheartedly. Your presence continues to guide me through your books, your lectures, your kirtans, and your disciples who carry forward your mission. I am forever indebted to you, Srila Prabhupada. Whatever small attempts I make in chanting, serving, or sharing Krishna consciousness are only possible because of the seeds you have sown in the hearts of millions. I pray for the strength to serve your mission sincerely, to follow your instructions without deviation, and to always remember your kindness.

Please bless me that I may remain a faithful servant of your servants, life after life. May I never forget the shelter of your lotus feet, for they are my only refuge.

Your eternally grateful servant,

Sai Rahul.

Thank you for the mercy you showed by coming and staying in my life, to show me the ideal way ahead.

Om ajñāna-timirāndhasya jñānāñjana-śalākayā

cakṣur unmīlitaṁ yena tasmai śrī-gurave namaḥ

All glories to Śrīla Prabhupāda, the eternal spiritual master, who out of boundless compassion crossed the ocean at an advanced age to deliver the most fallen souls of Kali-yuga.

He is the empowered messenger of Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa, fulfilling the prophecy of Lord Caitanya that the holy name will be heard in every town and village.

Like a fearless lion, he defeated the philosophies of atheism and voidism.

Like a tender mother, he nourished each soul with the nectar of the holy name, the wisdom of the Bhāgavatam, and the shelter of devotional service.

He translated and commented upon the most sacred Vedic scriptures with unmatched clarity, opening the doors of Goloka to the whole world.

O Śrīla Prabhupāda, you are the savior of the fallen, the captain of the ship of the Hare Kṛṣṇa movement, and the dearest servant of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa.

Please bless us to remain steadfast at your lotus feet, always engaged in your service, and to assist in fulfilling your mission—until the whole world is dancing in ecstasy, chanting:

Hare Kṛṣṇa, Hare Kṛṣṇa,

Kṛṣṇa Kṛṣṇa, Hare Hare,

Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma,

Rāma Rāma, Hare Hare.

All glories to Śrīla Prabhupāda!

All glories to your divine instructions!

All glories to your eternal service to Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu!

Vyasa Puja Offering to His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada nama om viṣṇu-pādāya kṛṣṇa-preṣṭhāya bhū-tale śrīmate bhaktivedānta-svāmin iti nāmine namas te sārasvate deve gaura-vāñī-pracāriṇe nirviṣeṣa-śūnyavādi-pāścātya-deśa-tāriṇe My most beloved Srila Prabhupada, Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All glories to Your Divine Grace. All glories to your unparalleled service to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga. This is your 129th Vyasa Puja celebration, and we are observing it with great joy and gratitude. Devotees around the world are offering their hearts in glorification of your matchless contribution in spreading the message of Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu to every corner of the globe. I thank you, Srila Prabhupada, for your teachings and blessings that have illuminated my life. Your instructions are the guiding light that keep me connected to Krishna, even amidst the challenges of daily life. I am deeply grateful to you, Srila Prabhupada, for connecting me to ISKCON, for forgiving my countless mistakes, and for blessing me with the guidance of a caring counselor like His Grace Vaishnava Charan Prabhuji, and the association of wonderful devotees in sanga. This association is my life's greatest treasure. Regarding my sadhana, I am struggling to make it steady and to complete all my rounds, hearing, and regular book reading. I beg for your strength and mercy so that I may continue my sadhana steadily and also render sincere seva to the devotees. By your causeless mercy, although my sadhana is not yet steady, I am still able to continue it somehow. Last year, I had the blessing of visiting Sri Mayapur Dham and Sri Jagannath Puri Dham, as well as your birthplace and prominent places in Kolkata. I regularly attend temple programs, festivals, and do a little seva. By your arrangement, I got an unplanned but most fortunate opportunity during the Annual Brahmotsavams to lift the Pallaki of the Lord at the Statue of Equality — a true blessing. By your grace, in Khammam we now have an ISKCON center, which I visit whenever I am there. Please bless us that very soon we may have a beautiful temple in Khammam, so that I and my family can regularly visit and serve the Deities. I am cooking and offering to the Lord at my place regularly, though sometimes I miss it. I felt very sad this time that I could not attend Lord Jagannath's Ratha Yatra, and also that I had to go through so many discussions just to get leave for Janmastami. I pray, Srila Prabhupada, that I may be more sincere and committed in my sadhana and services to the Lord. I am planning to go for Kartika Yatra this year — please bless me that no obstacles come in the way. I feel that so many things in my life are getting arranged by your invisible hand, and I beg you to please continue to shower your causeless mercy upon me. Vyasa Puja Mahotsav ki jaya!

Your insignificant servant,

Aravind Nagubandi

Hare Krishna Prabhupad,

I offer by respectable obeisances on to you

All Glories to you.

I am very grateful and thankful to you because of you we got the association of devotees and understand the purpose of life.

I bow down at your lotus feet on this auspicious day of your Vyas Puja, I beg for your mercy and blessings to chant and hear japa attentively and attend morning program without fail.

Dear Srila Prabhupad,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet.

All glories to you, the deliverer of the fallen souls.

Today, as I offer these words on your Vyasa-puja, I feel overwhelmed by the debt I owe to you — a debt that cannot be repaid in millions of lifetimes. You are not an ordinary personality. You are the śaktyāveśa-avatāra of Lord Krishna, the Senapati-bhakta prophesied by Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu, and the fearless soldier who carried out your Guru Maharaj's orders without a trace of hesitation.

You left the comfort of Brindavan, not out of restlessness, but out of boundless compassion. Every step of your journey was paved with sacrifice:

You walked from Brindavan to Mathura just to save money, and then traveled by train to Delhi. In Delhi, with barely any help, you wrote articles, begged for printing, and personally distributed your Back to Godhead magazines. You tolerated mockery from those who couldn't understand your vision — some called you mad for leaving the Holy Dham. But you were not leaving Kṛṣṇa — you were carrying Kṛṣṇa to the world.

At the age of seventy, when most are retiring, you boarded a cargo ship — the Jaladuta — with no money, no support, and no contacts, all for the sake of fulfilling your Guru Maharaj's instruction. You suffered two heart attacks mid-journey, and still, your only prayer was:

“Make me dance, make me dance, O Lord, just make me dance.”

You arrived in America not knowing where to stay, eat, or even sleep — but with full faith in Guru and Kṛṣṇa.

And then you changed the world.

You built ISKCON not with stone, but with your books, instructions, and compassion. You worked over 22 hours daily, translating scriptures, writing purports, training disciples, giving lectures, opening temples, and starting programs — all so that people like me, drowning in ignorance, could be lifted by the boat of bhakti.

No acharya in recent history has shown such determination, such love, such selflessness. Despite achieving what no one else could, you remained ever-humble — calling yourself not even a servant of God, but trying to be a servant of God.

Who else but you could make Lord Jagannatha not just the Lord of Puri, but the Lord of the entire world? Who else could take Ratha-yatra to the streets of New York, Moscow, London, and Tokyo? Who else could inspire every corner of the globe to chant:

Hare Krsna, Hare Krsna, Krsna Krsna, Hare Hare

Hare Rama, Hare Rama, Rama Rama, Hare Hare

By founding ISKCON, you gave us a spiritual home — a global family where everyone can find the shelter of devotion. Your books — so meticulously translated and filled with your realizations — are a treasure for all time, unmatched in clarity and depth.

Even though I never met you physically, I see you in your disciples, like His Holiness Radhanath Swami Maharaj, whose purity, wisdom, and humility reflect your divine legacy. And not just him — but so many of your glorious disciples: HH Gaur Govind Swami Maharaj, HH Tamal Krsna Goswami Maharaj, HH Gopal Krsna Goswami Maharaj, HH Bhakti Charu Swami Maharaj, HH Bhakti Vikas Swami Maharaj, HH Radha Govind Swami Maharaj, HH Nava Yogendra Swami Maharaj, HH Radhanath Swami Maharaj, Sripad Aindra Prabhu, and many more. Just by seeing their devotion, depth, and surrender, we get a glimpse of your unmatched greatness. Through them, through your books, through ISKCON, I can feel your presence. And through them, I want to serve you and your mission with everything I have — 1000% of my potential and more.

Srila Prabhupada, if it is your desire, please bestow just a drop of your mercy on this unqualified, fallen soul — filled with lust, anger, greed, pride, jealousy and envy — so that I may one day become eligible to take shelter of your disciples, receive diksa, and truly serve you, the Guru-parampara, Lord Caitanya Mahaprabhu, and SriSri Radha Syamsundar.

May I become a part — even if only the dust — at the feet of the servants of your servants. That would be perfection.

It is only by your mercy that I have come in contact with "HG Radheshyam Prabhu Ji" and, through him, "HG Vaishnav Sharan Prabhu Ji", by whose guidance I am trying to follow the path of pure bhakti, take proper shelter and training, and one day become qualified to take diksha from Maharaj and serve your divine mission with sincerity.

From the core of my heart, I offer you countless thanks — although even if I were to say "thank you" millions of times, it could never begin to repay what you have done for us. Even if I were to take millions of human births and dedicate every one of them in your service, it still wouldn't be enough.

But whatever little I can do, I will do — only by the strength and mercy given by you, the Guru, and the Vaishnavas. Even if my service is not as significant as the little squirrel who helped Lord Ram build the bridge to Lanka, I will still try with all my heart, sincerely, without holding back.

Please just keep your mercy upon me always, so that I may never forget you and may always remain engaged in your loving service.

By your's and prabhu ji's mercy i have done IDC course also recently.

Trying to be your servant's servant's servant,

Your Future Grand Disciple/Son

Jagadguru Shrila Prabhupada ki Jay!! Nama Om Vishnupadaya Krishna Presthaya Bhu Tale Shrimate Bhaktivedanta Svamin Iti Namine Namaste Sarasvate Deve Gaura Vani Pracharine Nirvishesha Shunyavadi Pashcatya Desha Tarine Please Accept My Humble Obeisances. O Shrila Prabhupada, your glories are unlimited! Who am I to glorify you? But on this very auspicious day of your appearance, I am just trying to remember your beautiful interactions, qualities and pastimes. Srila Prabhupada you have done so much for us. In the world where most of the people were busy in materialistic activities, you preached such pure, uncontaminated devotional service and gifted the world with your books, Krishna kathas, beautiful temples, pure devotees and sadhu sanga. Shrila Bhaktivinoda thakur had to search for one bengali copy of Shri Chaitanya Charitamrita and that too in Calcutta. But now with your divine grace anybody, anywhere in the world, in any language can have Shri Chaitanya Charitamrita, Shrimad Bhagavatam.. Shrila Prabhupada at the age of 70 when every old man is wasting his life in doing timepass, you went to the western world with 2 heart attacks just to fulfill your Gurudev's order. Without you Shrila Prabhupada I don't know where I would have been. Maybe i would have got entangled in bad habits and would have ruined my life. But with your grace somehow somewhere I am able to move in a right direction in my life. Shrila Prabhupada sometimes I wonder how fearless you were! At the time when naxalites were there in Calcutta and everybody was fearing from those terrorists, you told your disciples to have a meeting with terrorists. Your disciples were fearful but you went ahead and explained our philosophy to them. Also one time there was order by govt to vacant the city because there was some disturbance so they had expected bombs to be fell in the city from some other country. And your wife was not ready to go outside of city. So you remained with him to protect her. And you would hear sounds of bombs and you would know that at any time bomb may fell but you were very calm and were chanting Hare Krishna. Also your innocence is amazing! One time in western country you went outside in winters and felt as if all the things were painted white. But later realised that it was snow. You teach us time management by you amazing example. Moment to moment, just serving Krishna and nothing else! Even if it takes to compromise your sleep. You have spent sleepless nights to give this world your beautiful purports on shastras. Also, you would connect each and every circumstance to Krishna consciousness. One time during initiations, when you were giving diksha to one devotee you found some bad odour and said him that why he doesn't brushes his teeth. And the devotee replied infection Shrila Prabhupada. You said "Oh infection, then chant Hare Krishna". That very day the devotee got seva of chamara during your lecture. And at one point while explaining certain point, you looked upon that devotee and said "the material infection....." So how brilliantly you connected that teeth infection to the infection of this world. Whereas souls like me deviate from spiritual subjects to material subjects even when being with a devotee. Thank You Very Much Shrila Prabhupada for getting me connected to this amazing, blissful Krishna Consciousness. Thank You Very Much Shrila Prabhupada for all of your sacrifices. Please Forgive My offences Shrila Prabhupada.

Your Servant,

Vipul.

O Prabhupada, Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to you! I cannot imagine where I would be languishing in this material world without coming to your society. You have opened an institution where people can actually live blissfully. It all started with your devotees who are following your instructions of preaching the message of Lord Chaitanya Mahaprabhu. Your Bhagwat Geeta As It Is, your soulful kirtans, and your heart-touching touching impactful lectures turned my life significantly. When I understand Krishna in truth, I will be liberated, as Krishna says in the BG. Because of you, only I could know who Krishna is, who Jagannath is. I do not qualify, yet you are so merciful that you are allowing me to be in the Krishna conscious association of devotees. You have taught how to live a simple and thoughtful life. But I am so wicked and duplicitous that I have so many ulterior motives and I am not able to chant and serve you and your devotees properly. I want to distribute your books, I want to follow your instructions. I want to serve your devotees. You have so mercifully sent your disciples to preach, and I am so grateful for their association. You are a pure devotee, and I am begging at your lotus feet to give me the association of a pure devotee. I want to surrender, but my hypocritical nature is not allowing me to do so. On this auspicious day of your appearance may I get your blessings and continue in the Krishna consciousness throughout my life and serve the Vaisnavas. May I follow what my seniors are asking me to do. May I understand your purports and your mood. Without your mercy, I am so helpless. May I never offend any living entity. You have done so much for society, and you are so attached to Krishna. May I get a little bit of that, and my life would be a success

VYASA PUJA OFFERING TO

His Divine Grace Abhaya Charanavinda Bhaktivedanta
Swami Srila Prabhupad.

Respected Srila Prabhupad,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

First S.P, I want to thank you because of your mercy I got the purpose to live life.

- Thank you S.P, for giving us your books & lectures and your vani because of that we are still living.
 - Thank you S.P, for giving me opportunity to know about Krishna
 - Thank you S.P, though I don't know what is right or wrong just by following your words always took me to right path.
 - Thank you S.P, for saying
 1. Don't be disappointed
 2. Freedom doesn't come automatically
 3. Give this one life to Krishna
 4. Work in such a way God sees us.
 5. Everyday is a challenge
- Your Words always gave me strength

Thank you for coming S.P.
We all are thankful to the Merciful Lord for he has given us his treasure diamond (yourself) to us suffering souls.

→ Thank you for giving me and everyone the chance to reform.

I was very touched by your reciprocations with your disciples & Lord which I want to share.

- 1) You have said to your disciple that when he said that he was unqualified you have replied
You still love him.
- 2) You gave such Love to them greater than their Mother & father, such love they have never experienced
- 3, You gave the pregnant madhaji milk, when only 1 glass of milk was supplied to the whole community.
- 4, The tolerance and compassion you have shown
S.P for the foreigners and those who humiliated you.
- 5 S.P, you and your disciples give the perfect example on how to 'Depend on Krishna's mercy'.
I heard about the Juhu temple history S.P. Everyone became emotional.

Dear Śrīla Prabhupāda,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All glories to Your Divine Grace. I am most unqualified, yet on this auspicious day I dare to place a few words before you, not as one who has done anything worthy, but as one who is trying in my small and faltering way to be your servant. Without your mercy, I would have remained lost, never knowing the true purpose of human life. You have taken the time to show me that this rare human birth is meant only for service to Kṛṣṇa, nothing else. As a child, my heart would cry with questions no one could answer. My hands, unknowingly guided by your mercy, would reach for Bhagavad-gītā As It Is. I could not yet read your words, but I would look at the paintings for a long time, pondering. Those images became silent teachers, patiently waiting until the day I could understand.

Now, as I grow, your words answer the questions that once troubled me. You have shielded me from the trap of asat-saṅga, and you have given me the priceless company of serious devotees who keep my heart fixed on Kṛṣṇa. You have sent me the shelter of my Guru Mahārāja, who helps me remember your instructions and warns me when I begin to forget. I long to be like the “loyal dog” you once described, always near my master, always alert to serve, never running away.

Just as it is said: yasya prasādād bhagavat-prasādo yasyāprasādān na gatiḥ kuto 'pi

“By the mercy of the spiritual master one receives the mercy of Kṛṣṇa; without his mercy, there is no means of advancement.” Thank you Śrīla Prabhupāda for coming into this world to take us back to Kṛṣṇa. Thank you for protecting me again and again, and for even giving me the fortune to cook for you in Śrīdhāma Māyāpur on your disappearance day, an offering so small but to me, a treasure. Please let me always remember that without you I am nothing and with your mercy everything is possible. Let me serve in whatever way you desire, without pride and without expectation, only with gratitude.

Your insignificant and aspiring servant,
Monika

Hare Krishna dear Srila Prabhupada

Please accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet . Thank you Prabhupada for your causeless mercy that you have bestow on me by giving Krishna conscious. Movement. I am able to connect with different devotees . Because of you only I am able to take the name of hari by performing chanting. I am the most wretches and fallen soul deiving in this material ocean by providence. Please help me to cross over this ocean by grabbing me by hair of my hear and pulling me out. We dont deserve anything thag lord kriahna gave me. We are eternally indebted to you. Please help me to progress in my sadhanas and services and protect me from anarthas. Bless me to read as many book of yours as i can, chant as many times as i can listen your leacture and always be associated with your devotees. Please forgive me for all the offences i may have done and kindly help me become a good and sincere servant.

glories to Guru Parampara. Dear Srila Prabhupad, It has been one year since I shifted to Hyderabad and became connected to the ISKCON Abids temple established by you. In the past year, I had the privilege to serve you by engaging in youth preaching under the direction of HG Radheshyam Prabhu and the direct instructions of HG Vaishnav Sharan Prabhu and HG Mahaprabhu Chaitanya Prabhu. We have been engaged in preaching at CBIT and MGIT colleges for the past year. By your mercy, we were able to conduct all the sessions on time and give the participants a good experience. By the will of the Supreme, we received a very nice place to open our VOICE centre, just 500 metres from the college. Now we have around 7–8 committed devotees who have shifted to VOICE and are being trained in the science of Bhakti-yoga. Last year itself, we divided teams to register different boys from different hostels for the sessions. All that the organisation could achieve, leading to this success, is only because of your mercy and blessings, Srila Prabhupada. I remember each Mantra Meditation session was a struggle to deliver uncompromised knowledge in a sugar-coated manner. Especially in a state like Telangana, where there is rampant animal killing in the name of sacrifice, it is very difficult to convince people to follow the four regulative principles. But by your blessings and the will of Mahaprabhu, we were able to achieve this to some extent. But Srila Prabhupada, that is not all.

Irrespective of the stage of faith the Nakula devotees are in, I sincerely beg at your lotus feet to kindly give them faith and taste for chanting the holy name of the Lord. Let them at least have a glimpse of the nectar hidden in chanting the holy names. Without experiencing this precious taste, there is no hope for them to continue practising sadhana-bhakti with determination. And without you being their saviour, there is no other shelter to save them from the sufferings of this material world and send them back to the eternal abode, Sri Dham Vrindavan, to engage in the loving transcendental service of Sri Sri Radha Shyamsundar. I beg at your lotus feet to continue your merciful glance upon all the devotees of Navadweep Dham VOICE and bless us so that we can all assist you in preaching the message of Krishna consciousness to every living entity, at least in the state of Telangana. Also, Srila Prabhupada, very soon we are beginning this year's preaching. This time, we have received permission to preach in the college hostel where most of the students live. Last time, we could not tap into that hostel because of permission issues. Our Bharath Prabhu, a very sincere devotee and dear friend of mine who is serving as the preaching coordinator, has already prepared the plan for this year's preaching. Please bless us so that everything goes well this year and we can bring more boys to the lotus feet of Sri Radha Madan Mohan than last year, inspiring them to dedicate their lives to the Sankirtan movement of Mahaprabhu. Begging mercy at your lotus feet,

Your servant,

Flooded the entire world beyond our purview.

Brought impotency in seed of material desires,
Trees of entanglement have no more empires.

2) O glorious Acharya all glories all glories to you,
Impacted the consciousness which were skew.

Bhogis rejected bhogas and yogis their yoga,
Jyanis abandoning sankhya adopted bhakti yoga.

3) O glorious Acharya all glories all glories to you
Remained unaffected to fools overview.

They claim to be brahmana as birth right,
You established bhakti is not stereotype.

4) O glorious Acharya all glories all glories to you,
Devised ways to capture all atheists and new.

Took part in their marriage although sanyasi,
Was never done and heard in the entire history.

5) O glorious Acharya all glories all glories to you, Faced opposition from so called swamis and jew. Defeated all by Krishna's mercy successfully, Krishna consciousness vigorously.

6) O glorious Acharya all glories all glories to you, Performed unparallel, wonderful acts like a dew. Never ever took credit for any achievement, Knowing it belongs to master not to servant.

- 7) Thank you Srila Prabhupada for love and care, Selfless and unmotivated without any fare. Bless me with this selfless service attitude, Please Accept me as servant don't exclude.
- 8) Prabhupada how were you seeing Radha-Govinda, Just 5 years old and standing 2-3 hours in veranda. I still see deities as material marble and stone, Help me develop premanjan and not postpone.
- 9) You were tasting the nectar from CC even on jalduta, Surpassed sea sickness, heart attacks as Ramaduta. I feel sleepy and get bored reading philosophy, Please give me proper medicine and safi.
- 10) One night when sirens wailed people were leaving lane, You chose the safest place as shelter of the holy name. I find it safest to roam around the world in samadhi, Please give me a drop of faith and cure this vyadhi.
- 11) All were chanting Jaya Prabhupada during guru Puja, You were concerned for the injury of one Anuja. I see them externally and drink poison of criticism, Help me to drink the nectar and give up egotism.
- 12) Thank you Srila Prabhupada for your divine mercy, Accept me as humble instrument to carry this legacy. Let my body, mind, word, heart function for this only, Spreading message of Lord Chaitanya to all boldly.

Hare Krishna Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Śrīla Prabhupāda. I offer my most respectful obeisances unto the glorious Śrīla Prabhupāda, the embodiment of Guru-tattva and the Ādi-guru, who manifests in innumerable forms out of boundless compassion to uplift the fallen souls of this world—especially this most unworthy and fallen soul. O Prabhupāda, your divine instructions have illuminated the dark chambers of my heart. Your words, like a blazing sun, have dispelled the fog of ignorance that had engulfed my life. Through your mercy, I have found direction and hope. You have been my silent protector and unfailing guide—through every storm, through every fall, and in every test. You remained beside me, unseen yet deeply felt. Even when I falter and hesitate to walk the path, your glance of mercy lifts me. Even when my mind imagines that you do not care, I reflect with trembling gratitude: How could I have sustained even a moment of devotional life without your shelter? You never compromised the truth. You spoke with clarity, courage, and deep conviction— not as mere theory, but as your very life and soul. You lived what you taught and taught what you lived, setting an exemplary standard for all of us. You are the true representative of Śrīla Vyāsadeva and Śrīla Sanātana Gosvāmī. Just as Vyāsadeva divided the Vedic knowledge for the benefit of all, you have distilled the essence of the scriptures and offered it in a form that I, a spiritually illiterate soul, could understand and apply. And just as Sanātana Gosvāmī, the sambandha-ācārya of our Gauḍīya sampradāya, established the eternal relationship between the soul and the Supreme Lord, you have reawakened in me that forgotten sambandha. You have installed the beautiful forms of Śrī Śrī Rādhā Mādhana-Mohana, and you have sent your servants to help me comprehend the true path of devotional service. As Hanumān jumped across the ocean to find Sītā and connect her with Lord Rāma, you crossed seven oceans to connect all fallen souls of Kali-yuga to Śrī Gaurāṅga-Nityānanda. As Bhīṣmadeva, lying on a bed of arrows, spoke for fifty-six days despite great difficulty, you—his representative—dictated the purports to Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam until your last breath. What more can I say of your glories? They are endless. Whatever qualities I read in the Bhāgavatam, I see reflected in your life. You represented each and every ācārya in our disciplic line. O Father, O eternal guide, I have fallen into the pit of material existence, covered by ignorance, selfishness, and forgetfulness. Please, with your causeless mercy, lift me up once again and place me at your lotus feet. I am reluctant, stubborn, and forgetful—so chastise me if needed, correct me with love, but never let go of me. Let me surrender everything—my ego, my fears, my plans—unto your lotus feet, the only shelter I know. May I always remain a speck of dust at your lotus feet. May I never forget your mercy, even amidst the noise of the world. Please let me live, die, and serve at your feet, birth after birth.

Your insignificant servant,

Hare Krishna, Prabhupada. Dandavat Pranama.

Last year, I received initiation. I reside near the Hyderabad temple, which was established by you. During initiation, my spiritual master, HH Haladhara Swami Maharaj, instructed me to serve Sri Sri Radha Madan Mohan and to develop attachment for you. I have also heard from Gurudeva about increasing attachment to sadhu and guru through service.

Before initiation, I was given the opportunity to dress you in your quarters in Hyderabad and to clean your altar. After initiation, I have been performing your dressing service in the temple hall every week.

As in the previous year, this year also I have been engaged in the service of printing your Vyasa Puja book. I have also been assigned the service of giving a short talk on the holy name and performing one round of chanting with new devotees in the temple hall.

I attempt to read your books for 30 minutes daily, though I have not been fully consistent. HH Gour Govinda Swami Maharaj, Srila Gurudeva, has stated that everything is in your books.

Please shower mercy so I can increase asakti towards my spiritual master and the Vaishnavas, and by serving them, I can serve you in parampara.

Your servant,

Dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble obeisances.

All glories to your divine grace.

On this auspicious day of your 129th appearance day, we attempt to purify ourselves and please the supreme lord Sri Sri Radha Madanmohan. Today is the day we can very easily attain it , simply by remembering and meditating on few of your transcendental qualities.

Being a Bonafide acharya in this modern age of Kali, you are very compassionate. There are 2 prominent manifestations of such compassion, preaching of the holy name of Lord and publishing Bhaktivedanta purport to the transcendental literatures like Srimad Bhagavat and Bhagavad Gita. Simply by studying introduction of these literatures given by you , anyone can receive immense spiritual benifits, which is very very rare to attain, then what to think of studying these literatures with faith and in sanga of devotees.

Among many innumerable gifts we received from your Divine Grace , one significant gift is association of devotees. Especially hearing of transcendental pastimes of lord Hari in association devotees i.e. Sadhu sange Hari Katha. This is such a incredible gift, even the great devotees like Dhruva Maharaj is longing for.

Bhakti muhu pravahatam tvayi me prasanga

Bhuyad Ananta mahatam amalasayanam

Yenanjasam lvanamurur vyasanam bhavadhim

Nesye bhavad gunakatha amrita pana matah

Thank you very much Srila Prabhupad for giving us such incredible opportunities for our own purification in very sublime way.

When i contemplate on the opportunities and privileges I received in this community of devotees, I am experiencing mixed feelings of shame as well as feeling of great hope of developing strong faith in process of Krsna conscious. I see that such great opportunities were there with me but I didn't grow sufficiently in consciousness, I feel ashamed. But when I see the great wonderful vaisnavas live their life with incredible integrity, keeping orders of spiritual master as their life and soul and most importantly living the life of well wishers of devotees, it gives me the confidence that it's definitely possible in my life that Krsna will protect me, if I live the life of sincerity, with seriousness and with no ulterior motive.

One such great jewel like devotee was dear disciple of your Divine Grace - HG Anandamaya Pr. Just few days back he left this world. What a noble, gentle, humble and simple devotee he was.

Srila Prabhupada! Thank you very much for giving us these wonderful association of your great disciples, who teaches, inspires and encourages us to make progress in Krsna consciousness, through their own example.

As the statment made by Lord Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu in Chaitanya Charitamrita, in the context of departure of Srila Haridas Thakur, I.e.

Kripa kari Krsna more diyachilaa sanga

Svatantra krsnera icha kaila sanga bhanga

Being merciful on me Krsna gave me the association of Srila Haridas Thakur. Being independent of his desires, he has now broke that association.

Haridas aachila prthivira siromani

Taha vina ratna sunya hoila medini.

Haridas Thakur was the crown jewel on the head of this world, without him this world is now berift of this valuable jewel.

Similarly I feel, HG Anandamaya Prabhu was a valuable jewel on the head of our Sri Sri Radha Madanmohan community, now berift of him our community is berift of this valuable jewel.

Their lordships Sri Sri Radha Madanmohan being merciful gave us the association of HG Anandamaya Prabhu, but being independent of their desire, now they have broken the in-person association of HG Anandamaya Prabhu to our community.

Now on this auspicious day of your vayasapuja, we beg at your lotus feet, kindly bless us that we will understand the true value of sanga vaisnavas and not take it cheaply.

Also kindly bless us that in the sanga of devotees we will develop interest to hear Srimad Bhagavatam and chant holy name of lord Sri Krishna.

On behalf of the devotees from our Bhakti Vrikshya,

I beg forgiveness at your lotus feet for all the innumerable offences we might have committed either knowingly or unknowingly, kindly forgive us, and bless us that we will recognise our offences and receive spiritual strength by which we will not repeat them again.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet...

Harekrishna dear Srila Prabhupada

I am so lazy and fallen that I am writing this offering letter on Janmaashtami and in the back of my mind, my mind is giving me the assurance that "Sitapriya it's fine..."

You are writing the letter the day before his appearance only because you didn't have time. "

Today on the auspicious Janmaashtami I started my day by offending devotees without any reason which I later realised. I feel guilty because of the same. Nonetheless I spent a great time in your personal room chanting 12 rounds from which I was attentive only in a few but even then I am expecting you to hear my prayers and reciprocate and at this point I feel very undeserving to receive your mercy even though I chant occasionally. But, I am very thankful to you and your devotees (disciples) who have given me their association through their enchanting kirtans by which I am still surviving. I am also very obliged that I have been given such a good environment and devotee parents who always keep encouraging me to keep chanting. These days I have been very irregular to the temple giving the excuse of studies which are anyway not improving because of my negligence. I am neither doing my prescribed duty nor am I practising Krishna consciousness. I feel so ashamed when my friends say that we should not be so immersed in Krishna consciousness that we neglect our studies. As much as I have read about you in Lilamrta, I was impressed by your following qualities-

1.Devotee care

2.Cleanliness(Suchih)

3.Poetic(Kavi)

4.Expert(Daksha)

At last thank you for everything you have given us

All glories to you, the eternal servant of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, who carried the holy name across the dark ocean of Kali-yuga.

Like a fearless lion, you roared the truth of Kṛṣṇa consciousness, breaking the chains of illusion that bind the conditioned soul.

Your words are like a cooling moon for the burning hearts of this world, and your books are a bridge from the darkness of forgetfulness to the effulgent light of devotional service.

I am a tiny spark, yet you have given me the chance to serve in the great blazing fire of Lord Caitanya's saṅkīrtana movement.

May my voice forever sing the holy name,
my hands serve the devotees,

my mind remember Kṛṣṇa's lotus feet,
and my heart never stray from your instructions.

Śrīla Prabhupāda,

please allow me to be but a speck of dust at your lotus feet,
life after life,

until my soul returns to the eternal service of Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa.

Dear most Srila Prabhupada,

On this most auspicious occasion of your 129th Vyasa Puja, I bow down at your divine lotus feet again and again, offering my heartfelt obeisances from the core of my heart. Although I am unqualified to glorify your transcendental qualities, but for my own purification I am glorifying your divine grace.

Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu inaugurated the great SANKIRTHANA MOVEMENT, which is a river of pure love of Godhead. The Six Goswami's deepened and enriched this river. Srila Bhakti Siddhanta Sarasvati Thakur Maharaj, your spiritual master, made this river flow more swiftly and powerfully all over India. And you, my dear Prabhupada, carried this sacred river beyond the shores of India, made it to flow into every corner of the globe.

Today, crores of souls, myself included, are tasting the nectar of Krishna consciousness only because you compassionately brought it to us. For this, I offer my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet again and again. You perfectly fulfilled the prophecy of Śrī Caitanya Mahaprabhu, as recorded in Śrī Caitanyacaritāmṛta (Antya-līlā 4.126): pṛthivīte āche yata nagarādi-grāma sarvatra pracāra haibe mora nāma "In every town and village, the chanting of My holy name will be heard." By your tireless effort and unflinching faith in the holy name, this divine prophecy stands fulfilled before our very eyes.

Yet, out of your infinite vision, you revealed that only fifty percent of your mission was complete — the remaining fifty percent being the systematic establishment of Daiva-varṇāśrama-dharma is unfulfilled. My beloved spiritual master HH Bhakti Raghava Swamy Maharaj your dear disciple, is working tirelessly to fulfil your unfulfilled desire. As a humble disciple of my Gurudeva, I am endeavouring, in my small capacity, to assist him in this sacred mission. Therefore, I beg at your lotus feet for your Divine grace causeless mercy, so that I may serve my spiritual master wholeheartedly and thus participate in the completion of your unfulfilled desire. Please, Srila Prabhupada, bless me that I may always remain as my spiritual master servant and following His instructions, until the day I leave this body.

Your insignificant servant,

Sripati Das

Dearest Srila Prabhupada,

On this most auspicious day of your divine appearance, I bow down at your lotus feet again and again. You are the most compassionate messenger of Sri Sri Radha and Krishna, who crossed oceans to deliver Their holy names to every corner of the world.

By your tireless service, we have received the greatest gift — the knowledge of our eternal relationship with Krishna and the shelter of the holy name. I pray to always remain your servant, to follow your instructions with sincerity, and to share your message with whomever I meet.

Please bless me with unshakable faith, humility, and the strength to serve in your mission. May my life become an offering of love at your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada! All glories to your divine instructions Respected HDG Srila Prabhupada, Please accept my humble obeisance dandavat pranam. I am very fortunate to write my offering letter on your 129th birthday. You are very dear to Lord Krishna and you have taken the Shelter of The Lotus feet of ever youth, beautiful Lord Krishna.

In order to obey your spiritual master's order you started journey to America in cargo ship at the age of 70 to liberate the fallen souls and spread the message of Sri Krishna.

Because of you only in this age of kali, I am able to know Lord Krishna and so I am very much grateful to you and again I offer my humble obeisance on to your holy feet. In this age of kali, people are going away from Krishna and want to enjoy the world out of ignorance. Because of your purports which is very easy to understand fallen people like me are able to know the truth and started devotion to Lord Krishna.

In this age of kali, at present days I am suffering very much as a fallen soul. Please show your mercy upon me so that I will be fully engaged myself in your and Krishna's services.

Please forgive me if knowingly or unknowingly I had done any mistake to any Vaisnavas.

I seek your blessings to make advancement in the path of devotion to Lord Krishna.

Hare krishna my dear Srila Prabhupada PAMHO

Thank you so much for building so many beautiful temples and giving us the priceless gift of devotee association. I have read only a few of your books, yet I feel your presence and guidance in every word. At the age of 70, you crossed oceans, endured many struggles, and selflessly served the whole world. You have written everything we need to return to Krishna's lotus feet. Please shower your mercy upon me, give me the taste to read your books daily, and bless me with the sweetness of chanting the holy name. I am forever grateful to you, Srila Prabhupada.

You built temples far and wide, Gave devotees by my side. Crossed the ocean at seventy years, Wiped the world's dark pain and tears. Your books are jewels, pure and bright, Guiding souls to Krishna's light. Please give me the holy name's sweet taste, And let no chanting hour go to waste. Forever I bow at your lotus feet, Your mercy alone makes life complete. On this Appearance day I am begging at your lotus feet kindly give me the taste to chant the Holy name... Please forgive my all offences knowingly or unknowingly onto to lotus feet..

Offering Letter to Srila Prabhupāda!

I will try to glorify Srila Prabhupāda, even though I am not qualified to do so, in my little way. Prabhupāda preached dārcely spirituality in this materialistic world, where materialism is rapidly progressing. Majority of the people, even though they are well qualified, well to do, are in their bodily consciousness only. But, due to Srila Prabhupāda, slowly they are getting into touch with spirituality in the form of holy books like Bhagavadgita, Bhagavatam. Many are practicing spirituality in their day to day life. They are becoming live examples of Sanatana Dharma due to Srila Prabhupāda's teachings.

→ Prabhupada gave us the beautiful devotional process of Mangala Arati, Japa (chanting), daily Bhagavatam reading etc which is very practical in our day to day life.

→ Many people who were Godless previously are becoming faithful in God and changing their behaviour and character and becoming a positive energy to their society, family and world also.

→ The concept of soul and reincarnation are unknown to many students of materialistic education of nowadays but due to Srila Prabhupada's teachings, these concepts are becoming life giving to many.

Dear Srila prabhupada,
please accept my humble obeisances at your Lotus feet.

I have no real qualification to speak about your greatness, but still, I want to offer a few simple words from my heart. You are the one who brought the message of Lord Krishna to the whole world with such Compassion and determination.
Without Your mercy, I would still be lost in ignorance. not knowing the purpose of life. Through Your books, Your lectures, and Your disciples, You have given me hope. You have shown us how to live a life of service, simplicity, and love for God. Even though I fall short again and again, I know that Your mercy is always there, guiding me back to the path.

Jai Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble obeisance in the dust of your lotus □ feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On the most auspicious day of your 129th divine appearance in this material world, I feel the most unqualified and very much unworthy to glorify your greatness and distinction personality.

On this day, your Appearance Day, all the people in the Western world became extremely fortunate. You made it your life's mission to demonstrate to everyone the process of how to go back home back to Godhead, to show by your own example how our lives may become truly successful .I bow my head in gratitude for the unlimited mercy you have showered upon the fallen souls of this age of Kali .you descended into this world, carrying the message of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, and fearlessly crossed the ocean to fulfill the desire of your spiritual master, Srila Bhaktivedant Sarasvati Thakur.In your ' prayer to the Lotus Feet of Krishna ' you expressed your readiness to serve the order of your spiritual master . Therein lies the essence of your transcendal message.You succeeded in the order of your spiritual master, fulfilled his desire,and the chanting of the holy name of Krishna was heard in all the cities,towns and villages on the earth, and from all the oceans,seas, rivers and streams '.By Your surrender and prayer you enlisted the assistance of the supreme Personality of Godhead Himself, and in this way you did the otherwise impossible.

Dear srila Gurudev,I am still covered by ignorance, laziness,and material desires,yet you continue to give me hope.you have taught me that even the smallest service,when offered sincerely , becomes pleasing to krsna.You have given me the holy name ,prasadam , the association of devotees,and the process of devotional service - gifts beyond anything this world can offer.

Dear beloved Prabhupada, please bless me with your divine blessings so that this fallen soul can render even a little service to your Krishna conscious movement and try to spread your teaching.Your divine Grace, without you and your teachings of Lord Chaitanya's message to us, our life would surely have been full of pain,misery and suffering.Please , keep your divine blessings on me so that I remain in the shelter of ISKCON and always be a servant of Krishna.

Your most fallen servant of Servant of servant, Prakash ch. Dalei

My Most Beloved Spiritual Master, Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All glories to you.

With a heart full of joy and gratitude, I write to you today. Each step in my spiritual journey feels illuminated by your mercy, and I can sense your loving guidance in every moment. You have given this fallen soul the most priceless gift — the knowledge of Krishna, the understanding of bhakti, and the path to eternal service.

In this world, where so many are lost in the darkness of illusion, you have built a shining bridge of devotion that leads directly to the shelter of Lord Krishna. By your compassion, even my small attempts in chanting, hearing, and serving feel meaningful and blessed.

When I chant the holy names — Hare Krishna, Hare Krishna, Krishna Krishna, Hare Hare, Hare Rama, Hare Rama, Rama Rama, Hare Hare — I feel as though you are smiling, encouraging me to go deeper, to chant with my heart, to surrender without fear. Your words echo in my mind, removing doubts and giving me strength.

Srila Prabhupada, I pray to become an instrument of your mission, to live my life in such a way that you will be pleased. Let me serve the devotees with humility, spread Krishna consciousness with enthusiasm, and remain steadfast in my sadhana.

Thank you for never abandoning me, even in my moments of weakness. Your mercy is my only hope. I pray that my journey in this life, and in all lives to come, may always be under your loving shelter and the shelter of the holy name.

Your eternal servant,

मेरे शाश्वत गुरुदेव, उनकी दिव्य कृपा ए. सी. भक्तिवेदांत स्वामी प्रभुपाद के चरण-कमलों में कोटि-कोटि दण्डवत प्रणाम।

श्रील प्रभुपाद, जब संसार भौतिकता और अज्ञान के अंधकार में डूबा हुआ था, तब आपने एक करुणामयी दूत के रूप में अवतार लिया। आप भारत की पवित्र भूमि से उठकर समुद्र पार गए, केवल एक मिशन लेकर — पूरे विश्व में भगवान श्रीकृष्ण का पवित्र नाम फैलाना और हर मानव के हृदय में भक्ति का दीप जलाना। न आपके पास धन था, न संसाधन, पर आपके पास वह सबसे बड़ा खजाना था — हरिनाम, शास्त्रों का ज्ञान और अटूट विश्वास।

आपने हमें सिखाया कि मानव जीवन का लक्ष्य केवल भौतिक सुख-सुविधा नहीं, बल्कि भगवान के प्रेम की प्राप्ति है। आपने दिखाया कि कैसे श्रीकृष्ण-भक्ति के मार्ग पर चलकर जीवन के सभी कष्ट, मोह और भ्रम को दूर किया जा सकता है। आपकी वाणी में वेदों का सार था, आपका आचरण स्वयं धर्म का उदाहरण था।

श्रील प्रभुपाद, मैं मानता हूँ कि मैं अयोग्य हूँ, दोषों से भरा हूँ, और भक्ति के मार्ग पर मेरे कदम डगमगाते हैं। परंतु आपके उपदेश, आपकी पुस्तकें और आपके जीवन की कथा मुझे प्रेरित करती है कि मैं हार न मानूँ। जब मैं आपके शब्द पढ़ता हूँ, ऐसा लगता है मानो आप मेरे सामने बैठकर मुझे स्नेहपूर्वक समझा रहे हों।

आपने हमें यह भी सिखाया कि भक्ति केवल मंदिर की दीवारों में सीमित नहीं है; यह हमारे हर कार्य, हर विचार, और हर संबंध में जीवित रहनी चाहिए। आपने यह स्पष्ट कर दिया कि "कृष्ण के बिना कोई सुख नहीं, और कृष्ण के साथ कोई दुःख नहीं।"

मेरी प्रार्थना है कि मैं सदैव आपके उपदेशों पर स्थिर रहूँ, मेरी जिह्वा निरंतर हरिनाम का रस पिए, मेरे हाथ सेवा में लगे रहें, और मेरे हृदय में केवल भगवान के प्रति प्रेम बना रहे। मैं यह भी प्रार्थना करता हूँ कि जन्म-जन्मान्तर तक मैं आपके मिशन का एक छोटा-सा सेवक बना रहूँ और आपके कार्य को आगे बढ़ाता रहूँ।

अंत में, मैं आपको धन्यवाद देता हूँ कि आपने अपने जीवन की हर सांस हमें भक्ति देने में लगा दी। आपके बिना हमारा जीवन दिशाहीन होता, जैसे बिना पतवार की नाव भटकती रहती है। आपके श्रीचरणों में अनंत प्रणाम और हार्दिक कृतज्ञता।

आपका तुच्छ सेवक

My dear Srila Prabhupada,

Please accept my humble and respectful obeisances to the dust of your lotus feet. These dust particles are so glorious that they can purify the rivers of all the sins that people come and deposit. I remember one of your pastimes in the Kumbha Mela where one of your guests had, upon seeing your lotus feet said that this is the sangam that we need, and thus washed your lotus feet with the sacred water from the sangam, and poured the caranamrta back into the sangam.

Today is a day to remember all your glorious journey, the contributions, and the change you've brought about in this world. You are the best example of being comfortable with the uncomfortable. Starting with a couple of heart attacks, you circled the globe 14 times, opening 108 temples. Even if one spends his entire life writing, he will not be able to write as much as you did in the course of your pastimes.

This year, as you always say "Double it!", I tried doubling my book score in the marathon for your pleasure, and have distributed 272 books.. In my sadhana and services, I continue to take baby steps.

On this most blessed day, please shower your mercy upon me. I pray that in some future life I will be in your personal association rendering service to your lotus feet. May I venture out of my comfort zone like you in spreading your mission. May I get the taste to read your books. May I get the intelligence to understand your teachings as they are, and to present them as they are. May I always be in association of your sincere and serious followers. May I never offend them. May I make myself of some use to your mission, in this life, and in all the lives to come.

Your insignificant servant,
Trilokatma Murari dasa

Dear Srila Prabhupada!!!

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

The whole world is eternally indebted to you for the topmost service, you have done for us.

Your legacy was carefully carried forward by your sincere disciples and one such personality is HG Anandamaya prabhuji.

Just like, you have sacrificed your life to fulfil the mission of your spiritual master..following in your footsteps prabhuji also dedicated his life to fulfill your instructions to stay back in hyd and translate, print and distribute your books in Telugu language.

Such a simple hearted and determined personality, HG Anandamaya prabhuji has taught us many pure devotional principles by his personal examples..like never missed mangalarati, punctual, regulated, dhiradhira jana priya, Hearing daily SB class from even young devotees, tolerance, humility, ajata Shatru, no complains, complete faith and dedication to Guru's mission, Missionary spirit, submissive to authorities, taste for srila prabhupada's teachings and pastimes, cooperation and many more..

Just 2days ago, prji left us and joined with you again in your nitya lila and we seek both of your causeless mercy to follow your legacy and perfect our lives and help many others in KC.
Please forgive us for my immature dealings and short comings in your services.
Srila Prabhupada ki...jai!!
HG Anandamaya pr.ji ki...Jai!!!

O gurudev...On this divine occasion of your 129th Vyasa Puja this is a small letter from this fallen and insignificant soul whom u taught real purpose of life.O gurudev you came 129 years ago on this divine day from Sri Golok Vrindavan for us fallen souls to give Krishna bhakti... Without your mission of Krishna consciousness this Sunday I would have been going the most sinful thing living a sinful life all throughout this life getting struck in the cycle of birth and death.You came into my life when I am in depression,feeling lost often questioning why I am even living? U introduced Krsna in my life.U propagated Mahaprabhu's chanting so much that even I who didn't have any clue of this could chant with your divine mercy.Only because of your mercy I could come to a human platform from an animalistic life.With ur mercy I aspire to become a humble servant.Thank you is a small word for everything u have given us... chanting the mahamantra, transcendental books,diety worship,Vaishnav sanga.... everything Prabhupad.I beg your mercy that I get complete faith in you and Krsna.Please shover ur mercy on this insignificant soul to surrender to u,to have complete unwavering faith in you and ur divine books,to practice all the instructions u gave us.I committed so many offenses at your lotus feet out of mundane speculations,false ego...please forgive this insignificant soul for all these stupid actions.Ur foreign disciples loved u immensely..when will I have that love for u Prabhupada?When can I understand ur greatness?When will I really cry for u?When can I write a gratitude letter from he heart?O gurudev please show your mercy on this fallen soul.My life's purpose is reached when I can love u even 1% of ur disciples.Please don't leave me Prabhupada.

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

All glories to you.Considering what the world is going through at this moment, there are no other words than "thank you" to express the feeling that overflows our hearts.

Thank you for showing us Kṛṣṇa in all his splendour and beauty. Thank you for showing the path how to follow the path of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu.)

Thank you for your books, your time, your words, your gravity, your gestures, your walk, your patience, your love, and your causeless mercy for us so fallen souls.

Thanks to you, my life has got meaning. Yet being a fallen soul, I still have material desires and can't relish the Holy Name. But I have faith in Krishna's words that no progress goes in vain on this path of bhakti

Your servant
Chandramukha Gauranga das

Dear Srila Prabhupada,
please accept my humble obeisances at your Lotus feet,
All Glories to your Divine Grace.

Prabhupad I am very very fortunate to come to the shelter of your lotus feet. It is said that when the conditioned soul comes to contact a pure devotee his spiritual journey will start. how sinful one may be, whatever low birth it may be, the lava matra sadhu sanga, one will attain all perfections. If one receives the mercy of guru, one will get the Krsihna's mercy. The mercy which I have received is inconceivable to understand, because many births I took, simply suffered from niranada, asat and acit. But Prabhupad you opened my darkened eyes and filled me with transcendental knowledge. You are my Lord birth after birth. You are the ocean of mercy. How can I forget the mercy on this very auspicious day. I am feeling very very grateful.

I am contemplating that, Lord descended in this material world has a purpose. He has a mission. because the Lord wants to show how much my devotee has faith upon me, annihilate the miscreants and establish the true principle of dharma. but the Caitanya mahaprabhu incarnation is very special. His Avatara is the most magnanimous to the most fallen souls. the same way Acaryas descends in this material world according to the time, place and circumstances. it is not that all the avatars are the same. But their mission was the same. Srila Prabhupada your descends is unic. Your descent in this world is very relevant for modern civilization.

If you are not descended in this world there is no hope for us. You said this material advancement is a great stumbling block for those who want to advance in spiritual life. People say that we are advanced in education, advanced in science & technology, advanced in politics and we have made a very comfortable life. Why do we need God? but even though so much advancement is there, people become more & more crazy, more and more confused. The more one thinks he is advancing the more one will become bondage in this material world. people are becoming more and more frustrated, bewildered and unhappy. people completely forgetting the clue of spiritual life. In this situation you brought such a wonderful moment, that is Krishna consciousness.

Actually in this very confusing situation, you gave very clarity by this krishan consciousness moment. Presently people are confused everywhere. Especially in the matter of religion, there is so much confusion. There is no clarity to whom to worship, which God to worship, what is real religion, why we should know about God, what is our relationship with God. The most important is that they are not inclined to read vedas. Moreover they have no idea that one should hear from sadhu. The purpose of human life is to make association with sadhu. Even though there are so many vedic literatures, so many saints are written books, so many temples are there, different religion's came upon, but still there is a lack of Inquisitiveness about spiritual life.

Srila Prabhupada you gave such wonderful literature such as Bhagavadgita and Srimad Bhagavatam, which show the direction of this society. It is like the two eyes of our body. Without eyes we are completely blind. We cannot move forward, I cannot do anything. This literature is so relevant to this modern society. Without this there's no proper direction to society. For every problem there's a solution in this literature. Even though there are so many authors' wrote books, there is no change in society. But the way you wrote these literatures is suitable for the present day of modern society. Acarya is called Trikalazna, Prabhupada you know the past, present and future. Vyasadev wrote this literature by seeing the future vision. Similarly you gave this Krishna consciousness moment with all paraphernalia by seeing the vision for the next 10000 years. What I am experiencing by reading this literature, it is so nectar. Whenever I am reading I feel so fresh in my consciousness and my heart is moving. Sometimes I am hearing from you, sometimes I am reading and whenever I am getting an opportunity to share with others, I am feeling so happy and blissful. No one like you gives this transcendental subject matter which is very relevant and very practical. If anybody has a little bit of sincerity he will ask why I am wasting my life, and there are practical steps one may adopt. Out of deep compassion, not only did you give such a transcendental literature, you created an environment to practice pure devotional service such as Chanting, hearing, four regulative principles, association and deity worship. Prabhupad after practicing a few years of Krishna Consciousness, I am realizing that the goal of human life is simply to depend on Krishna, develop faith in Krishna, and ultimately surrender to Krishna. But it is not easy, the more I go deep in Krishna consciousness the more I am seeing anarthas in my heart. There are gross anarthas and there are subtle anarthas. The gross anarthas is very deeply rooted in bodily consciousness. In the bodily consciousness the enjoyment tendency is very strong. Even though millions of births I did the same thing, but by your causeless mercy at least I am able to understand that I have to come out from the bodily platform, otherwise there is no growth in spiritual life. When one is in bodily platform default he has subtle anarthas that profit adoration and honour. As long as it is there it is very difficult to advance in spiritual life. What to speak of understand the constitutional position that I am a servant of Krishna. But your mercy I am engaged in the service of the Lord. Your transcendental words gave me strong faith that one day I will realize that I am an eternal servant of Krishna.

Srila Prabhupad by your mercy and vaishnavas, I am able to render some service to Sri Sri Radha Madan Mohan. Please be empowered to follow four regulative principles and chanting 16 rounds attentively. Sometimes the mind gives so much disturbance due to the offences. Please empower me to develop a service attitude, so that I will not do any offences to the vaishnavas. Give me the strength to develop more and more faith in Krishna and the process which you gave me.

With grateful heart,
your insignificant aspiring servant,
Lokeshwar Govinda das & Vandita kesavi devi dasi.
